

Brides-To-Be

MRS. THOMAS KIMBLE (Sandra Wolf)

Kimbles Will Live In Illinois

A church reception followed the marriage Saturday, Aug. 15, of Sandra Lynne Wolf, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Wolf of Ida, and Thomas Michael Kimble, son of Mr. and Mrs. Palmer Werner of Semole Avenue, Redford Township.

The Rev. Richard Mullin officiated at the ceremony in First Baptist Church, Temperance. He was assisted by the Rev. Elsie Johns of Clarencville United Methodist Church, Livonia.

GIVEN IN MARRIAGE by her parents, the bride wore a floor-length gown of silk organza. Val lace trimmed the scalloped neckline and the cuffs of the long puffed sleeves, as well as the bodice and the A-line skirt.

Her cathedral-length mantilla was of illusion trimmed with lace and was held by a net camellia cap, and she carried a white orchid bouquet surrounded by miniature carnations and lilies-of-the-valley.

The maid of honor, Linda Lawson of DeKalb, Ill., and the bridesmaids, Karen Wolf, the bride's sister, Darla Lutzmore of Delavan, Ill., and Mrs.

Thomas Beck of Mason, were gowns designed by the bride. Made in pastel dimly over taffeta, the gowns had fitted bodices, semi-gathered floor-length skirts and empire waists.

All wore picture hats dyed to match the gowns, Miss Lawson's in yellow, and the bridesmaids in aqua.

They carried colonial bouquets of daisies and baby's breath with streamers.

THE TWO FLOWERGIRLS, Carmen and Stacy McClint, the bride's cousins, wore gowns matching that of the maid of honor, and carried white baskets with aqua daisies.

Jerry McCabe was best man, and Mike Harland, Brent Weber, and Fred Harm were the bridesgroom's men. The ushers were James Kimble and Thomas Wolf.

Mr. and Mrs. Kimble are honeymooning in Northern Michigan and Wisconsin. The bride is a junior at Judson College, Elgin, Ill., and the bridesgroom is a senior at Judson. They will live in Elgin while completing their studies.

Farmington Grad Weds

In the Farmington home of her parents, Gail Leslie Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lowell H. Brown, was married recently to Anthony Burns Kolman, son of Dr. and Mrs. Isadore Kolman of Huntington Woods.

The Rev. Ralph Hildebrand officiated for the double-ring ceremony. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a street-length silk organza dress trimmed with Venice lace. Her bouquet was a cascade of carnations and white roses.

Mrs. Cyril Berger was the maid of honor and Mrs. Rick Metevier was the bridesmaid. Dennis Blakeley was best man and Rick Metevier was the usher.

A reception for 150 guests was held in the Farmington Community Center.

The bride is a 1969 graduate of North Farmington High School. They will live in Pontiac.

ROSEMARY TUCK

The bride-elect is a 1966 graduate of Our Lady of Sorrows High School. Her fiance graduated from Detroit Catholic Central in 1963 and has served three years in the U.S. Marine Corps, spending 13 months in Vietnam. The wedding is planned for Feb. 20, 1971.

JANIE BRIGHTON

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Naquette of Detroit announce the engagement of their daughter, Janie Ellen Brighton, to Ronald Sheehan, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Sheehan of Pritchard, British Columbia. The bride-elect is a graduate of Mackenzie High School, Detroit, and is employed by Spartan Stores, Inc. in Plymouth. Her fiance completed four years in the U.S. Coast Guard and is employed by Woods Motor in Detroit. An Oct. 17 wedding is planned.

MRS. FRANK WILLIAM BONTLY (Linda Diane Cox)

Bontly-Cox Rites In Grace Lutheran

A double-ring candlelight ceremony Saturday, Aug. 15, in Grace Lutheran Church, Redford Township, united Linda Diane Cox and Frank William Bontly in marriage.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steele Cox Jr. of Oakland Avenue, Farmington. Mr. and Mrs. William C. Bontly of Janesville, Wis., are parents of the bridesgroom.

The Rev. Victor Halboth, THE BRIDE, given in marriage by her father, wore a Victorian gown of white organza over taffeta. The trim was chantilly lace accented by pale blue ribbons.

A flower cluster held her shoulder-length veil, and she carried a white orchid on a prayer book.

Mrs. Zane Miller was her sister's maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Paul Stokes, Jeanne Simkins, and Mrs. I. W. Minor. Vicki Miller was junior bridesmaid. All wore gowns fashioned with white cotton lace bodices and skirts of blue chiffon over taffeta. They carried nosegays of white mums.

JOHN BONTLY was best man and the ushers were James and Dave Cox, Terry Kerwin and Hus Gabrielson. Ted Miller was junior usher.

Mrs. Cox chose a celery green silk shantung costume and Mrs. Bontly was in aqua silk linen.

After a reception for 125 guests in the Farmington Elks Club, the couple left for a trip to the eastern states. They will make their home in Janesville.

The bride is a graduate of Western Michigan University, where she was affiliated with Alpha Sigma Alpha sorority. Her husband is a student at Milton College and a member of Sigma Pi fraternity.

ELLEN HEID

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Heid of Oxford Drive, Plymouth, announce the engagement of their daughter, Ellen Marie, to Stephen Read Elpers, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Elpers of White Plains, N.Y. The bride-to-be is a graduate at Plymouth High School and the University of Michigan. Her fiance holds degrees from U.M. and the University of Pennsylvania. A Sept. 4 wedding is planned.

JOYCE MALLON

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond H. Mallon of Springfield Drive, Farmington, announce the engagement of their daughter, Joyce Irene, to Jerry Alan Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Perry E. Davis of Sturgis. The bride-elect is a 1968 graduate of North Farmington High School and is a junior in the school of education at the University of Michigan. Her fiance also is a junior at U. of M., where he is majoring in music. A spring wedding is planned.

VALORIE LOUGH

Mr. and Mrs. J.E. Lough of Nestlewood Avenue, Farmington, announce the engagement of their daughter, Valorie Ann, to Charles V. Williams Jr., son of Mrs. Charles Williams of Pontiac and the late Mr. Williams. The bride-elect is a graduate of North Farmington High School and is attending Olivet College where she is affiliated with the Sorority Society. Her fiance is also attending Olivet and is affiliated with Kappa Sigma Alpha Fraternity. A June wedding is planned.

Royal Oak New Home For Pair

Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Vasold are making their home in Royal Oak following their recent marriage in St. Matthew United Methodist Church, Livonia.

The bride is the former Karen Kellogg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kellogg of Shady side Drive, Livonia. Mr. and Mrs. Foster Vasold are parents of the bridesgroom.

The Rev. Haldon Ferris officiated for the wedding and a dinner reception in Dearborn Inn followed the ceremony.

GIVEN BY HER FATHER in marriage, the bride wore a white organza gown with empire bodice, A-line skirt and peau d'ange lace and seed pearl trim. Her mantilla was trimmed with peau d'ange lace, and her cascade bouquet had a white orchid surrounded by white stephanotis.

Mrs. Michael Webster of Windsor, matron of honor, wore a lilac chiffon empire gown with bishop sleeves and swiss embroidery trim. She carried lilac glimmellas, pink roses and baby's breath in a cascade arrangement.

The bridesmaids, Mrs. Bruce Cobb, Mrs. Dennis Galloway and Donna Nordstrom, wore similar gowns in orchid chiffon.

BRUCE COBB was best man, and the ushers were Thomas Kellogg, Timothy Guttleber and Jeffrey Kitch.

Mrs. Kellogg chose a pale aqua jacket dress for the occasion and Mrs. Vasold was in rose silk and woredale. The newweds honeymooned in Florida for two weeks. The bride is a 1966 Bentley High School graduate and attended Northern Michigan University. She is employed as a medical assistant in Livonia. Her husband graduated from Macomb Community College and is a student at Wayne State University.

Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Barrett of 611 Road, Livonia, announce the engagement of their daughter, Frances Anna, to Stephen J. Hibel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hibel of Columbus, Ohio. The bride-to-be is a graduate of Eastern Michigan University. Her fiance is a student in the University of Michigan College of Engineering and employed by Columbus and Southern Power Co.
