

Top Talents, Exhibits Highlight State Fair

With the biggest lineup of talent and exhibits in its history, the Michigan State Fair opens this year on Friday, Aug. 28 and runs through Monday, Sept. 7 (Labor Day). It's top entertainment bargain of the year. A million are expected to attend. They'll see and hear free of any extra charge:

- The Music Shell shows, featuring big-name stars.
- Sixteen horse shows in the Coliseum.
- The Grandstand shows, including the Hurricane Hell Drivers and the Mark Wilson Show.
- Livestock and crop exhibits.
- Fine arts and community arts exhibits, demonstrations, and shows.
- Commercial exhibits.
- Children's contests.

—A Fairgrounds full of music and fun.

FOR THE VERY young. Kiddoland will offer rides that are a bit tamer, along with a collection of young farm animals to see and pet and other attractions.

Every day at the fair is considered Agriculture Day by the State Fair. However, each day has been given a special designation:

Friday, Aug. 28 -- Grand Opening, with a downtown Detroit parade starting at 11:30 a.m. at the Fisher freeway and moving south on Woodward to Fort Street.

Saturday, Aug. 29 -- Veterans' Day, with drum-and-bugle corps, marching units, and a ceremony at the Veteran's Monument. It is also Salute to Canada Day.

Sunday, Aug. 30 -- Religion Day, with a Sunrise Service in the Music Shell at 8 a.m. A second Sunrise Service will be held at 8 a.m. Sunday, Sept. 6.

Monday, Aug. 31 -- Old Timers' Day, with gifts and special events for the senior citizens.

Tuesday, Sept. 1 -- Children's Day, Fair Managers' Day, and Farm Bureau Day, with special events scheduled for each group.

Wednesday, Sept. 2 -- Queens' Day, with the crowning of Miss Michigan State Fair 1970 by Governor Milliken and finals in the Music Shell in the evening.

Thursday, Sept. 3 -- Governor's Day and Legislators' Day, honoring our elected officials. Also a special salute to agriculture.

Friday, Sept. 4 -- Family Day.

Saturday, Sept. 5 -- Michigan Mayors' Day.

Sunday, Sept. 6 -- International Day, with performances by various ethnic groups.

Monday, Sept. 7 -- Labor Day, and closing day of the 1970 fair.

Gates at the State Fair will be open from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. General admission is $1.50, with children 8 to 12 admitted for 50 cents and children under 8 admitted free when accompanied by an adult.

The State Fair grounds is located at Woodward and Eight Mile, Detroit, convenient to expressways and major arteries. It is served by the DSR public transit system.

E. J. JEFFE Keirns, State Fair general manager, said the lineup of entertainment stars "is the best we've ever had."
