

Adray gains split, keeps hold on 1st

By Rob McElhenny
special writer

Patience helped Redford Little Caesar salvage a split of its Livonia Collegiate Baseball League (LCBL) double-header with Livonia Adray Sunday night at Redford's Capitol Park.

Todd Krumm tossed a four-hitter in a 6-1 Adray win in the first game, but Caesar rallied from a two-run deficit in the eighth with single runs in the third, fourth, fifth and sixth innings and hung on for a 4-3 victory.

The split kept Adray in first place in the LCBL with a 20-5 mark. Caesar is a half-game back at 20-6. The two teams collide again at 7:30 p.m. Sunday at Livonia's Ford Field in a contest that could decide the LCBL regular season champion.

"We chipped away with a run here and a run there and kept the game close by playing good, fundamental baseball," said Caesar coach Bob Moralis of his team's performance in the second game. "We were able to move runners over and we had good defense."

CAESARS BENEFITTED from good relief pitching in the second game by Tom Liss, who entered in the fifth inning for starter Derron Armstrong and allowed one run on three hits while striking out three.

"We played pretty well in the first game, but didn't hit that well in the second," said Adray manager Ron Heller. "It's tough on a long, hot day to score a lot of runs."

Kevin Harrah (4-2), Adray's second-game starter, pitched no-hit ball for four innings, but walks, sacrifices and an error allowed Caesar to score twice to tie the game.

Kevin Krill led off the third with a walk and eventually scored on Don Taylor's sacrifice fly. In the fourth, Kevin Schwanz reached base on Adray first baseman Jeff DePorter's fielding error, went to second when Dan Michaels walked, advanced to third on Mike Hodge's sacrifice bunt and scored on Mike Hackett's ground out.

CAESARS TOOK the lead for good in the fifth. Tyrone Gaines singled for Caesar's first hit, then stole second. Mike Betz moved Gaines to third with a fly ball that umpires ruled was trapped by Adray center-fielder Dave Austin.

After Taylor walked to load the bases, Heller directed Rick Rozman from the bullpen. Schwanz greeted Rozman with a sacrifice fly to score Gaines with the go-ahead run.

A Mike Vigna single drove in Mike Hodge with Caesar's fourth run. Krumm, who had three hits in the game, homered for Adray in the seventh to cut the gap to 4-3, but that was all the LCBL leaders could muster off Liss.

Austin also homered for Adray, sending an Armstrong pitch soaring over the right-field fence in the third inning.

IN THE OPENER, Krumm had his fastball, curve and forkball all working to near perfection, as he raised his record to 6-0.

"I got the Caesar batters to hit a lot of grounders off my forkball," the Michigan State football and baseball star said. "I started to really concentrate on the forkball from the third inning on, and three of my six strikeouts were off the fork."

Heller added, "Krumm is doing a super job for us. He was throwing the forkball quite a bit and it worked well for him."

Officials switch dates to boost participation

The heat is on.

And that's not just a reference to the weather. The time has arrived to start preparing for the Men's and Women's Observer & Eccentric Open Golf Tournament, co-sponsored by Whispering Willows Golf Course and Livonia's Parks and Recreation department.

While the tournament format remains the same — 18 holes for women, 36 holes over two days for men — there are some changes worth noting. Most importantly, the timing should be better than ever.

The men's tournament will be moved up a week, to Sept. 14-15. Entry fee is $30, with eligibility limited to those living within the O&E coverage area (those included are listed on the coupon).

THE WOMEN'S tournament is also on the move, to Aug. 24 — which is a Saturday, the first time ever the women will play on a weekend. Tournament director Gary Whitener, Whispering Willows golf pro, proposed the change from the traditional Wednesday date in an effort to open the tournament up to more women. The entry fee for the women's tournament is $17.50. Women's entries will be accepted until 6 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 17. Competitors must live within the O&E coverage area. Men's entries close at 6 p.m. Friday, Sept. 6.

Last year, you might recall, both O&E tournaments had finishes tighter than Anne White's tennis body suit. Gerylyn Repasky of Livonia, now starting for Bowling Green State, nipped 1983 O&E champ Ann Lauer of Birmingham on the first playoff hole to win last year's title. Both had shot 79s.

THE MEN'S crown went to Nunzio Marino of Plymouth, who edged Alex McLuckie of Livonia and Bob Thomas of Westland by a stroke. Marino combined rounds of 73 and 75 for a 38-hole total of 148, withstanding a driving rainstorm on the final day that delayed play 90 minutes.

Both champions putted their way to victory. Repasky two-putted from 35 feet on the first playoff hole to claim the women's title, and Marino reduced his putting average from 36.35 per round to 38 in the first round and 30 in the second.

The message is clear — get that putter sharpened up. And start getting ready now.
