

Farmington would foot 75 percent of the improvement bill for the 10 Mile to Grand River stretch, Deadman added. "We would probably have to bond for our share of the money, but we have the capacity to do that," Deadman said. The next time Oakland County is scheduled to receive federal funding is

"If it (the revised road improvement plan) is approved and there's no right-of-way to be acquired, construction could begin late in 1988 or early in 1989", Deadman said, estimating the construction to last about two years.

The last major road improvement to Orchard Lake Road was completed in November, 1980, when the road was

The project cost $7.9 million, and was the largest project undertaken by the Oakland County Road Commission. Farmington Hills contributed $646,000 to the project and West Bloomfield paid $330,000 while the road commission chipped in $646,000. Federal monies provided $6 million for the project.

"It's a real honor, that's for sure," Cairns said Tuesday. "I never really dreamt I'd ever have a building named after me."

IN ADDITION to his years as clerk, Cairns served as secretary to the city's

He also twice served as acting city manager, in 1973 and in 1978, and was the 1979 "Citizen of the Year."

"I've always been very proud of this city hall," the honoree said Tuesday.

"All the accomplishments of the city, I've had a part of it. Not alone, but I've had a part of it.

"And I've had excellent help, very good help. I owe a lot of success to my help. It just seems everyone's been so cooperative and so willing to help. It's been a real pleasure to be with the city, to be involved with the city."

The city has changed in the years since Cairns began work here.

"When I took over, it was a very rural community, and now it's a bustling urban community.

"The city is just building in the right direction; it's really coming along."

The help of professionals is needed by Farmington Youth Assistance (FYA). The service organization is sponsored by the cities of Farmington and Farmington Hills, Oakland County Juvenile Court and Farmington School District.

Its aim is to reduce juvenile delinquency and enhance family life.

Interested lawyers, teachers, CPAs and those with leadership qualities are asked to contact the FYA office, 476-3840.
