

Festival fun keeps Farmington busy

It just wouldn't be a festival without a parade. The parade down Grand River Avenue was a highlight of the 21st annual Farmington-Farmington Hills Founders Festival. The parade, held Saturday morning, included a variety of floats, clowns and entertainment. Although the sky was cloudy, it didn't rain on the parade. The weekend festival activities marked the end of a busy week in the Farmington area. Other events included Kids' Day, the pet show, the Miss Farmington scholarship pageant, arts and crafts exhibits, and sidewalk sales.

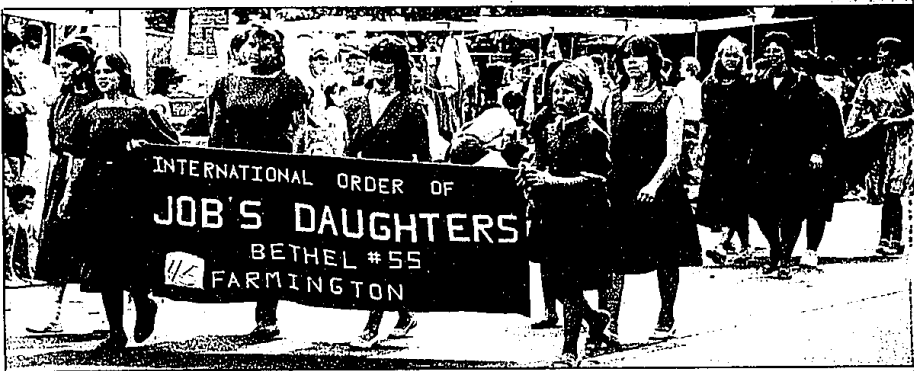

Floats were a part of the festivities at Saturday's parade in downtown Farmington.

Adam Fayne and his father, Ron, got Adam's bike ready for Saturday's parade.

Erica Brown, Shane Mall and Adam Mall (left to right) look at a parrot during Kids Day. Kids Day, held Tuesday, July 16, provided a variety of fun activities for the younger set.

Members of the International Order of Job's Daughters marched in the festival parade.

Jim Stevens, from the White Heather Highlanders Bagpipe Band, tunes up for Saturday's parade.

Biotherm, ours alone

SIMPLE

SOLUTIONS FOR

IRKSOME

PROBLEMS

From France, an uncomplicated skincare program that requires just one solution for each need. No time consuming plans and procedures. You get only what's called for, and no more, for facial care, body care, and or sun protection.

For example, Creme Contour Suncare 15 Jour, a 15 day body contouring treatment that, when used in conjunction with Acti-Masseur Massage Glove, helps restore a sleek, even appearance to lumpy "orange peel" skin. Kit, $25.00.

Exclusively in Hudson's Cosmetics, at Northland, Eastland, Oakland, Farlane and Twelve Oaks.

hudson's

ORDER BY PHONE, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Call toll free, 1-800-222-2000. USE YOUR HUDSON'S SHOPPING CARD, MAIL, SHOPCARD or The American Express® Card.

© 1985 Dayton Hudson