

Fiber In Your Diet?

There has been a lot of conversation lately about the advantages of increasing the fiber in our dally diet. The Awrey bakers make it delicious, easy and economical for you to do

We make no medical claims for these products, however we do claim to produce the finest quality baked foods made from wholesome ingredients grown by our nation's farmers. The fiber in our baked foods is derived entirely from natural cereals, which have been beneficial in man's diet for thousands of years.

So if you are concerned and interested in increasing the natural fiber in your family's diet, look for this label on the following variety of baked foods we have made available for you and your family.
