cable connection

The Archdiocese of Detroit is now participating in our local programming lineup. The broadcast can be seen on Channel 15. The channel is entitled CTM/O and is on from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. the programming includes daily news, generic topics on social issues as well as religious information.

The Cable Access Committee recommended that this channel open up to help encourage people of all denominations to become more informed with local programming as well as meet the demands of the local audience. The Cable Commission and Metrovision

Twelve Oaks announces the establishment of a Twelve Oaks Fashion Gulid. The Gulid is a new concept designed to be a fashion/public relations opportunity for selected, fashion-conscious women. Fashion Gulid members will be selected from applicants by an interviewing process. No modeling experience is necessary. But, an interest in modeling, fashion potential and enthusiasm for learning how to improve themselves is essential. Participants will be provided with fashion training and guidance as well as many complementary services and gitts from the stores at Twelve Oaks. Instructions will be given on modeling, public speaking, makeup application and fashion direction.
