Mothers and babies class will start

The Lamaze Childbirth Education Association of Livonia is offering a class of sharing and exercise for mothers with babies and small children. Mothers-to-be are also welcome to attend.

The six-week series, which includes discussion on child care along with an exercise program, will meet at 10 a.m. Wednesdays beginning Sept. 11 in Memorial Church of Christ, 35475 Five Mile, between Farmington Road and Levan, Livonia. The fee is $25, which includes baby-sitting.

The class is conducted by a certified teacher who's also a mother. To register, call the association at 592-0618.

"By Myself" opens for tots and mothers

United Hebrew Schools Nursery School announces the opening of a new program for 2-year-olds this September. "By Myself" is a new program which will allow 2-year-olds to attend nursery school by or herself once or twice a week. This program is in addition to the already existing full and half day programs, extended hours, and the mother-toddler class.

The school also offers a flexible lunch program. All programs will be taught and supervised by a highly qualified staff.

For other information or an appointment to visit the school, contact Sylvia Handler or Carol Gale at 554-1050 or 356-7378 at United Hebrew Schools.

Individual liberties protected

Constitution Week commemorates the signing of the Constitution of the United States. It is the oldest constitution still in active use in the world today, and is the basic document of the U.S. Government, a government which protects the individual liberties of its citizens. The Quakertown Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution urge all Americans to be worthy of its protection. Study your Constitution.

The group is sponsored by Cataract and Eye Care Institute, directed by Dr. Henry J. Spiro. The members offer help and advice to patients and their families seeking information on cataract treatment and eye care. Inquiries are taken by calling the group's hotline, 646-4188.

FARMINGTON HIGH SCHOOL BOOSTERS invite all parents of students in the school to the first meeting of the year at 7:30 p.m. Monday, Sept. 9, in the school's library.

Inquiries are taken by Julie Misares, 476-5627.

DAUGHTERS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION, Three Flags Chapter, meet at noon Monday, Sept. 9, in the Farmington Hills home of Mrs. Paul Fairbrother. Mrs. Robert Kirsten will assist the hostess.

Speaker for the day will be chapter member Cheryl Callis Flynn, whose daughter Margaret became a member of the U.S. Military Academy in West Point in July. Her talk is called "Duty, Honor, Country. The Women of West Point Join the Long Gray Line."

The chapter will hear a report on the celebration of the Bicentennial of Constitution Week, which is Sept. 17-23, by Mrs. Stuart Elliot of Southfield.

Chapter regent, Mrs. Morley Foster of Farmington Hills, and her vice regent, Virginia Platter of Lathrup Village, will represent the chapter at the 85th Michigan State DAR Conference, set for Sept. 26-28 in Grand Rapids.

ADAT SHALOM SISTERHOOD hosts a Torah Fund Tea from 1:30-2:30 p.m. Monday, Sept. 9, in the Farmington Hills home of Charlotte Nussbaum, 30851 Oak Valley Drive. She is president of the sisterhood.

A donation of $5 is asked to support the Torah Fund-Residence Halls campaign of the Jewish Theological Seminary.

Inquiries are taken by Ellen Rubin, 626-4355.

WOMEN AGLOW, Farmington Area Chapter, meet at 6:30 p.m. Monday, Sept. 9, for coffee, fellowship and a meeting in Sweden House in Farmington Plaza, 31550 Grand River. The meeting is open to all Christian women in all surrounding areas without charge.

Louise Monticelli is speaker for the evening whose talk is called "Quality Time," and subtitled "Priorities for Christian Women." She is mother to five children of a blended family, secretary to the Christian education director at Brightmore Tabernacle and director of the tabernacle's nursery.

Inquiries about Women Aglow will be taken by Sally Rousseaux, 474-4160.

AMPUTEE SUPPORT AND SERVICE GROUP, Farmington Area Chapter, meet at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 10, in Farmington Family Physicians, 23880 Orchard Lake Road.

Inquiries are taken by Bev Cornell, 553-8974.

CENTER TOASTMASTERS gets a new chapter of Toastmasters International under way with an orientation meeting at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 10, in Jewish Community Center, 6600 Maple Road.

The event is open without charge to persons interest in gaining public speaking skills. Inquiries are taken by Larry Bissinger, 258-9630.

DAUGHTERS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION, Quakertown Chapter, begin the season with a noon luncheon, Tuesday, Sept. 10, in the home of Mrs. Clarence J. Collins, Farmington Hills.

Mrs. Neil W. Huard, Quakertown regent, will preside. Speaker for the day is Ruth Knight whose topic is "The History of the Quakers."

The speaker attended public schools in Detroit and later in Strasburg, France. She holds degrees from Wayne State University, University of Michigan and Detroit Institute of Musical Art.

She is now retired from a career that spanned more than 30 years with Livonia School District and was chairwoman of the language program that originated in the school system.

Knight is a member of P. Lambda Theta, past president of Livonia Historical Society, a member of Livonia Cultural League, Center for Urban Education and the Friends Society.

Quakertown will celebrate Constitution Week (Sept. 17-23) with a proclamation signed by Farmington Hills Mayor Ralph Yoder and Farmington Hills Mayor Janette Dolan, commencing the observance.

Guests are welcome. Both members and guests must make reservations with Seema Shaw, 557-2472, or Esther Rosenthal, 352-6633.

Fashions will be shown by Rosalie's of West Bloomfield and jewelry will come from Jewelry Unlimited in West Bloomfield.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF UNIVERSITY WOMEN, Farmington Branch, open the season with an international potluck dinner at 7 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 11, in First Presbyterian Church of Farmington, Farmington Road and 11 Mile.

Members will furnish the ethnic fare for members and guests to share.

The event is open to all prospective members. Membership is open to all women who hold at least a baccalaureate degree from an accredited college or university.

Interested persons are invited to call Nan Goshorn, 474-0537.

The dinner will be followed by a short meeting to introduce newcomers to branch activities for the coming year. President Ellen Harper will briefly report on this year's national AAUW convention.

Music boosters from all three area high schools will participate in Tag Days Friday and Saturday, Sept. 21-22. Letters are being mailed this week to area merchants seeking permission to solicit in front of stores and businesses.

"Tagging Together" is the slogan that has been used for the past 12 years to raise money for the young musicians.

Following tradition, the high school music students will don their uniforms and, with canisters in hand, ask passersby for donations. Contributors will receive a tag good for free admission to one of three Tagging Together concerts scheduled during the school year.

Last year just short of $13,000 was raised and divided between the three schools. The money was used for sheet music, repair of band instruments and scholarships.

A total of 260 merchants cooperated last year with about 400 students and 600 parents, and the number is expected to be about the same this year. Some merchants add a prize to their response to the letter, as the teens compete for prizes related to the amount of money brought in from their canister.

Final plans will be cemented for the branch's 33rd annual used book sale, set for Sept. 26-29 in Livonia Mall.

LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS, West Bloomfield-Farmington Area Branch, meet at 6:30 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 12, in Treas Restaurant, Orchard Lake Road and Pontiac Trail in West Bloomfield.

Speaker for the evening will be Daniel T. Murphy, Oakland County executive.
