The new salary schedule will provide a 3 percent salary increase followed by increases of 4 percent

To handle the deficit, "the president is looking at other steps," he said.

Oakland trustees had raised tuition earlier this year by 5 percent but were forced to rescind it when Gov. James J. Blanchard threatened to veto appropriations for institutions which failed to freeze tuition.

Hammerle said the union membership would be receiving copies of the tentative agreement in the next few days. Ratification would take place in a mail-in vote.
