Aggies face monumental task

By Brad Emmons staff writer

Unless they're going up north for the weekend, few Observersland football followers will have a chance to see the Game of the Week.

That's because it will take place Saturday night (7:30 p.m.) in Traverse City, as host St. Francis, one of the state's top-ranked teams in Class C, takes on a senior-laden Redford St. Agatha squad.

"We're looking forward to it and the kids are excited," said Agatha coach. "But we'll be ready to play."

Agatha came out of last week's win against Servite short-handed at quarterback.

Starter Tom Trujillo took a hit in the back and suffered a collapsed lung. He'll be out for at least four weeks, according to Goddard.

Chris Orzech, the backup quarterback, is out with a separated shoulder, leaving the signal calling to defensive back Jim Kintle, a 6-foot-1, 180-pound senior.

"It's a challenge for Jim," Goddard said. "But he throws well and is a good athlete. He's a little nervous right now, but he'll be fine."

How does the Observer sports staff see it? Pick — St. Francis wins a close one, both writers agree.

FRIDAY GAMES

PLYMOUTH SALEM at LIVONIA CHURCHILL (7:30 p.m.) — Salem was pushed around last week by a good Trenton team. Churchill showed tough defense in a 13-7 win over Sterling Heights. The teams appear to be equal. The team making the fewest mistakes wins. Pick — Churchill takes Churchill, but Emmons takes Salem.

LIVONIA STEVENSON at LIVONIA FRANKLIN (7:30 p.m.) — Both teams' defenses last week to generate more offense. Stevenson quarterback Dave Roschicki wasn't as good as his 10-0 passing performance indicated. Franklin quarterback Dave Drabicki needs to put on a better show than he did last week against Plymouth. Pick — McCosky likes Stevenson, but Emmons says Franklin's defense pulls them through.

Thurston win is confidence builder

By Brad Emmons staff writer

It wasn't pretty, but Redford Thurston football coach Ron Powell didn't care. It was a victory — a much needed one.

On Saturday, Thurston broke a 10-game losing streak with an 8-0 victory over visiting Gibraltar Carlson. It was also the first win for the second-year coach.

"We're capable of playing better offensively," Powell said. "We had our chances."

But 100 they the players needed this win. Now that they've got a taste, they'll feel better about themselves.

Despite the torrid heat and humidity, Thurston's defense rose to the occasion, making a goal line stand in the fourth quarter.

"The Eagles' defense, led by linebackers Chris McFarland and Dave Dietrich, recovered four Carlson fumbles."

The only score of the game occurred in the second quarter when Dietrich picked off a pass and returned it 35 yards for a touchdown. Quarterback Kevin O'Connor added a two-point conversion pass to Ron Rousseau to account for all the scoring.

"We had about 150 yards total offense," Powell explained. "We did not execute that well."

On Friday, Powell returns to his alma mater, Allen Park, to face the Jaguars in the Tri-River League opener for both teams. Allen Park is the defending league champions.

Powell, who played for Allen Park in 1960, goes against his old coach, Ed Bellas, who has been the Jaguars' head coach for 21 years.

"I know the coaching style," Powell said. "Allen Park is quick and they execute well. They're the kind of team that is going to get better each game."

EDSEL FORD 21, BORGESS 20: Mistakes cost Redford Bishop Borgess a season-opening victory Saturday at Dearborn Edsel Ford.

Quarterback Dan Emos ran for a pair of touchdowns and threw for another, all in the first half, as the Thunderbirds led off the Spartans.

"We about Edsel out in the second half," said Borgess coach Gary Cook. "And we should have been on the board in the fourth quarter. With four minutes to go we had the ball on their yard line, first and down, and fumbled."

"Turnovers were the big thing."

After the Spartans missed the extra point in the third quarter, which would have tied the game, they turned the ball over three times in the final period on a pair of fumbles and an interception.

Borgess, outgained by Edsel Ford 276-215 in total yardage, relied primarily on 6-foot-2, 215-pound senior fullback Mike Stewart, who scored all three Spartan TDs on runs of 49, 9 and 6 yards. He had 95 yards in 15 carries for the day.

Quarterback Mike Richele hit 5 of 10 passes for 92 yards.

ST. AGATHA 21, SERVITE 0: Defense played a big role in Redford St. Agatha's debut Saturday night against Detroit Servite in a non-league game at Redford Ulicio's Kraft Field.

The Aggies held Servite to a mere 41 yards on the ground and allowed just one completed pass for 11 yards.

"The whole defense played a great game," said Agatha coach John Goddard. "Our front people — John Marnon, John Modes, Kevin Rich, Nick Phillips, Ron Rychnicki — were outstanding."

Agatha racked up 269 total yards, 197 on the ground.

The Aggies opened the scoring in the first quarter on Tom Trujillo's 1-yard quarterback sneak. Jim Kitchen's extra point made it 7-0 at half.

In the third quarter, Kevin Poulsen fumbled the ball on a 2-yard run, but lineman Marty Emery recovered in the end zone for Agatha's second TD. Fullback Tom Kitch then hit Phillips with the two-point conversion pass to make it 15-0.

The Aggies then sewed things up in the fourth quarter on Kitch's 15-yard run.

grld predictions

WESTLAND JOHN GLENN at PONTIAC CENTRAL (7:30 p.m.) — This is a matchup of two teams that are in a bit of a slump. Glenn would be in trouble, but it's football, and Central, yet to play a game (coming off a 3-4 season), is no match for the powerful Rockets. Pick — Two votes for Glenn.

BISHOP BORGESS at REDFORD UNION (7:30 p.m.) — Borgess let the heat and fumbles get to them last week in a one-point loss to Dearborn Edsel Ford. RU got coach Jim Gibbons his first win in a mild upset over Stevenson. Pick — Borgess, it's unanimous.

REDFORD THURSTON at ALLEN PARK (7:30 p.m.) — What do you make of this Thurston team, which snapped a 10-game losing streak last week? Coach Ron Powell of the Eagles returns to his old stomping grounds, taking on Allen Park veteran coach Ed Bellas. The Jaguars, a 3-0 winner last week over Grosse Ile, are the defending Tri-River League champs. Pick — Allen Park.

ANN ARBOR HURON at WAYNE MEMORIAL (7:30 p.m.) — Wayne (1-0) should have three of its starters back (off suspension), giving them a better chance at upsetting Ann Arbor Huron, which lost last week to Lansing Genesee. Pick — Huron, but McCosky likes Wayne again. McCosky takes the River Raisin.

CATHOLIC CENTRAL at YPSILANTI (7:30 p.m.) — You remember when Ypsilanti was a high school All-American power at UCLA, was held to 31 yards by COT Things won't change much for Ypsi. Pick — CC.

SATURDAY GAMES

CLARENCEVILLE at BLOOMFIELD HILLS CRANBROOK (2 p.m.) — The Metro Conference season opens with both schools coming off lopsided non-league defeats last week. Cranbrook beat Clarenceville handily in past years, but this is a different year. Pick — Clarenceville takes Cranbrook, while Emmons says Clarenceville takes Cranbrook.

FARMINGTON HARRISON at FARMINGTON (1 p.m.) — This will be a much better game than you may think. Farmington isn't as bad as its 14-0 loss to Southfield might indicate, and even though Farmington was impressive over West Bloomfield last week, the jury is still out on the young Harries. As always when these intra-city rivals meet, it'll be a rock 'em, sock 'em affair. Pick — Falcon QB Joe Bob Wenzel is a questionable starter because of an ankle injury — Harrison wins it.

GARDEN CITY at WARREN WOODS TOWER (1 p.m.) — Can the Coyotes come back after the heart-breaking loss to Wayne? Tower ripped L'Anse au Loup 18-0. Pick — 11-0-0 for the Coyotes, the "super" team.

Last week, McCosky was 9-5 and Brad Emmons 8-6.
