

Musicale blends arts, music

"Ara Grata Artis," an intermixing of the arts and music, is the theme for Birmingham Muscale's program for this year.

The opening program, Thursday, Oct. 10, honoring United Nations Day, is "Ara Artifum Omnimus Conservatis," (the art that preserves all other arts) will have an international flavor.

Artists for this program include: Carol Ferrero, soprano, accompanied by Judith Istock; Wendy L. Pardee, flutist, accompanied by Catherine McGaffey and Barbara Wool, pianist.

Ferraro, a member of the Detroit Symphony Chorale, is soloist at First Presbyterian Church of Birmingham and Temple Kol Ami. Pardee will perform the Concerto in G Major for Flute by C.P.E. Bach. She is principal flute with the Rochester Symphony Orchestra.

Wool, member of "Opus Three" chamber ensemble, is the pianist at the Birmingham Unitarian Church. She will play the first movement of Mozart's Sonata in A Major as well as works by Chausson, Faure, Debussy, Elgar and Godard.

Encouraging young musicians is one of the many ways Birmingham Muscale reaches out into the community.

The Muscale's three junior clubs — Mercury Music Makers, grades four and five; Movement Muscale, grades six, seven and eight; and Junior Muscale, grades nine through 12 — offer opportunities for young musicians to meet others with similar interests.

For information on the junior groups, call Margaret Snyder, 626-5786, coordinator.

DAR Museum to benefit from program

The Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR) Museum of Washington, D.C., will benefit from a program at Miniature Makers Workshop of Royal Oak at 8 p.m. Monday.

save energy

The hot-water heater is one of the big energy culprits, accounting for 15% of the fuel used in the home. A temperature setting of 120°, compared to the usual setting of 150°—will cut your fuel bill by 9%.

GIVE THE TIME OF YOUR LIFE.

The speaker, Joyce Bockemuhl, DAR docent and member of the Piley Hill Chapter of the DAR in Birmingham, will share miniature ideas from a full-scale museum by presenting a slide program of period rooms in the DAR Museum in the nation's capital. The $5 donation at the door will benefit the museum. Public is invited. For information, call 549-0633. Miniature Makers Workshop is at 1725 W. 14 Mile, Royal Oak.
