

Giving concert

Leszek Bartkiewicz, award-winning pianist, will give a concert at 2:30 p.m. Sunday at Detroit Institute of Arts Lecture Hall. The concert is a benefit for the Polish Art Collection at Detroit Institute of Arts. Bartkiewicz will play Chopin's dazzling B Minor Sonata. Tickets, at the door, $7.50. Bartkiewicz will play a 9-foot Bechstein concert piano loaned by Smiley Bros. Music Co.

Youth Symphony begins 4th season

Metropolitan Youth Symphony starts its fourth season with a concert at 7:30 p.m. Sunday at Southfield High School, 10 Mile and Lahar roads. The program will be highlighted by Smetana's Moldau, J.S. Bach's Brandenburg Concerto No. 2, Stravinsky's Firebird Suite and W. Mozart's Overture to "Don Giovanni". The 243 young musicians will appear in three orchestras according to age and musical proficiency. The symphony orchestra will be conducted by Alan MacNair, concertmaster of the Rochester Symphony and assistant conductor. He is music director of Detroit's Waldorf School.

The concert orchestra will be led by Douglas Blanch, director of instrumental music at L'Anse Creuse High School-North. The string orchestra will be headed by Judith Culler, music educator in the Troy school system.

Saturday morning rehearsals are held in Southfield, 9:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. September through May.

The orchestras will appear at Orchestra Hall, Sunday, March 2 and Troy High School, April 19. Tickets at $5 each will be available at the door. For information, call 477-2894 between 9 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Local news you can use

Demonstrating needle skills

Phyllis Krause Gallery, 29 W. Lawrence, Pontiac, will host a group of Hmong women who do some of the most exquisite needlework in the world. They will be demonstrating for visitors 7-9 p.m. Friday. They are part of the approximately 1,000 Hmong people, a pre-literate, seminomadic tribal people from Laos and Northern Thailand, now living in the Detroit area.

Many of them have come to Michigan from the refugee camps in Laos. The gallery handles art and artifacts from many parts of the world.

Antique show opens

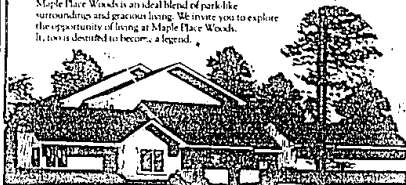

Great Lakes Antique Show & Sale will be held Friday, Saturday and Sunday in the Sports Arena at U-M Dearborn, 4901 Evergreen, across from Fairlane Town Center. Use the Michigan Avenue Exit west off Southfield Freeway.

Show hours are noon to 9 p.m. Friday and Saturday and noon to 5 p.m. Sunday. Admission is $5 with $1 of that going to Children's Hospital of Michigan. There will be 70 dealers from 20 states in the three-day sale.
