Nordlund shows paintings

Painter Howard Nordlund will open a show of 25 new paintings at his studio, 340 E. Maple, Birmingham, 2-8 p.m. Sunday. The new show is titled "Decorative/Fine Art." Nordlund, who has done extensive traveling in the west, continues to develop the textural qualities of his abstract works in oil, saying, "That has become my entire, now direction." The rich organic qualities of his works reflect the wealth of color seen in the rock formations, ore and mineral deposits and natural erosions of the Rocky Mountains. Some also seem to incorporate landscape images. Nordlund has been a successful full-time artist in Michigan for more than 20 years with many commissions to his credit.
