Sheer Voile Gown Is Bride's Choice

Madelaine Liane Banner chose a sheer voile embroidered gown for her wedding to Ronald Robert Union the afternoon of Aug. 22 in St. Mary Catholic Church, Kalamazoo.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold M. Greenfield of Kalamazoo. Mr. and Mrs. John Union of Country Club Drive, Livonia, are parents of the bridegroom.

The Rev. Joseph Bartkowski officiated, and the bride's father escorted her down the aisle.

MRS. RONALD UNION (Madelaine Banner)

THE BRIDAL GOWN featured wide puffed sleeves and satin accents at the stand-up collar, cuffs and on a band at the hemline. A modified Camelot cap held the bride's full-length veil.

Maid of honor Patricia Banner, sister of the bride, wore a sleeveless A-line gown of blue bonded lace. A wide blue velvet sash circled the waist, and she carried a nosegay of blue daisies and wore daisies in her hair.

Bridesmaids Susan and Donna Union, sisters of the bridegroom, and Mary Ballentine of Santa Clara, Calif., as well as flower girl Peggy Burdick of Battle Creek, were dressed like the honor attendant.

The couple greeted 200 guests at a buffet luncheon in the Knights of Columbus Hall in Kalamazoo before leaving for a northern Michigan honeymoon.

They will live in Kalamazoo where the bride, a graduate of Western Michigan University, is a teacher at Gobles High School. The bridegroom, a Bentley High School graduate, is a senior at WMU and a member of Alpha Phi Omega fraternity.

LOWELL KNAPP of Edwarsburg, Mich., was best man. The fathers were William Osis of Holland, Mike McKee of Allen Park and Roosevelt Nuar of Detroit. Greg Young of Milford was ring bearer.

The bride's mother wore an aqua street-length dress with a beaded yoke, and Mrs. Union chose pastel pink lace.

Guess who I woke up with this morning?

Herb Alpert and the Tijuana Brass.
At exactly 7:15 A.M. Which is when my clock-radio goes off every morning. Good, hottest music... it's such a delightfully refreshing way to wake up every morning.

Instead of a D. J. pummeling away at you.
Tomorrow I'm hoping for Tom Jones. I bet he's great in the morning too!
