

Tinsel, Mistletoe and Holly

Two hours of Christmas music will be performed by the 75 voices that make up Farmington Community Chorus for the holiday concert called "Tinsel, Mistletoe and Holly," set for 8 p.m. Friday and Saturday, Dec. 7-8 in North Farmington High School. Singers ready for showtime are Jim Whitten (top row at left) Bill Doerr and Ken Rainford. In front from left are Sue McLean, Chris Gach, and Linda Rainford. Solos, duets and specialty groups are all listed on the playbill, along with numbers by the chorus in concert. Tickets are $3.50, or $2.50 for seniors and students at the door.

Volunteers with high blood pressure sought

Sinai Hospital is looking for volunteers with high blood pressure to participate in a study to test the effectiveness of a new anti-hypertensive drug. Participation in the study requires a one-week stay in Sinai Hospital. If you are eligible to participate, you will receive $300, free hospital medical care, a complete medical history, physical, and health counseling for physical factors affecting blood pressure. For other information on volunteering for the study, call Nancy Plot at 492-6664.
