

Families receiving free holiday meals

K MART STORES nationwide are providing a holiday feast on Thanksgiving and Christmas for more than 50,000 needy families.

On Wednesday, Nov. 27, 10 families received food baskets from each of K mart's 2,100 stores. The baskets contained turkey, potatoes, vegetables, stuffing, bread and pumpkin pie — all the trimmings necessary for a traditional holiday meal.

Local civic and social service organizations were contacted by each K mart store to help locate that community's most needy families.

The second half of the program will take place Tuesday, Dec. 24, Christmas Eve, when another 15 families will receive food baskets from their local K mart store.

"According to latest U.S. Census Bureau Current Population Reports, 35.3 million persons live in poverty in our country," said Bernard M. Fauber, chairman of the Troy-based K mart Corp.

"Each and every community must face the reality of hunger and do something about it," he said. "Corporations have the power and resources to reach out to these people during this holiday season."

K mart Corp. is the second-largest retailer in the world, with 1984 sales of $21.1 billion. The company operates more than 2,100 K mart discount department stores in the U.S., Puerto Rico and Canada, as well as Pay Less Drugs, Designer Depot, Waldenbooks, Kresge and Jupiter Stores, Furr's Cafeterias, Bishop Buffets and Builders Square.
