Parents Of Bride Give Her In Marriage

Djanna Johnson and Robert F. Jones were united in marriage in an evening ceremony Saturday, Aug. 22, in Grace Lutheran Church in Redford Township.

The Rev. Victor Halboth Jr. performed the rites and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Johnson of Brady Avenue, Redford Township, parents of the bride, gave her in marriage.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Josephine Jones of Livonia.

THE BRIDE'S A-line gown, by Stephanie of Dearborn, was Dacron organza, fashioned with alencon lace bodice and sleeves and lace appliques on the skirt and train.

A headpiece of lace and organza held her bouffant veil, and she carried lilies and white roses.

Sandra L. Johnson, the bride's sister, was maid of honor. She wore a pale yellow floor-length A-line gown with lace trim on the sleeves and train. Her flowers were yellow daisies and carnations.

The bridesmaids were Kathy and Brenda Johnson, also sisters of the bride, and Terri Sloan and Connie Retzlaff. Their gowns were mint green and they carried green-trimmed carnations.

Bride's Father Officiates Elizabeth Wissman Is New Bride

Mary Kathryn Zell, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Edward Zell of Redford Township, became the bride of Elizabeth Wissman in an Aug. 9 ceremony in Lola Park Evangelical Lutheran Church.

Rev. Zell officiated for the rites, with the assistance of the Rev. Leonard Koeninger of Plymouth, and also gave his daughter in marriage.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Meier of Manitowish, Wis.

THE BRIDE wore an empire gown of white silk organza with venise lace trimming the high neckline and bishop sleeves. A venise lace headpiece held her chapel-length veil, and she carried tiny white roses and baby's breath in her bouquet.

Bonnie Klunk of Sheboygan, Wis., was matron of honor and the bridesmaids were Priscilla Boehm of Saline, Mich., and Ann Schweitzerberg of Jordan, Minn.

They were identical gowns with pale yellow organza skirts and long-sleeved, high-necked bodices of white organza. Their flowers were white and yellow daisies.

ASSISTING THE BRIDE: GROOM were Ronald Meier of Manitowish, as best man and Steve Schweitzerberg of Jordan, Minn., and Jim Zell of Redford Township as groomsmen. Kenneth Meier and Greg Zell were ushers.

The bride's mother wore a light apricot chiffon gown and Mrs. Meier's dress was gold chiffon.

The couple greeted 150 guests in a reception at Idyl Wyld Country Club before leaving for a honeymoon in Jamaica and the West Indies.

Livonia Girl Stewardess

Pan American Stewardess, Mary Jane Trent of Livonia is a tall girl who believes in doing everything in a big way.

The modish brunette recently completed training at the International Stewardess College in Miami. On her first flight at overseas travel she served aboard a 747 giant jet transport, which carries 362 passengers, en route from New York to London.

Now that's all in a day's work to Meandering Mary Jane, who is based in New York. Jet Clipper flights take her across the Atlantic to Latin America, the post resort islands of Bermuda. The Bahamas and Caribbean, to Europe, Africa, as well as west to Alaska and over the Pacific to Japan.

The new stewardess is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard H. Trent, 1840 Floral, Livonia. Before taking to the air, she was an office staffer for Monumental Life Ins. in Detroit.

Miss Trent majored in business education at Central Michigan University and later attended Associated Airline School. She is a sports enthusiast and excels at skiing, swimming and sewing. Playing the accordion is another specialty.
