

7 In Area Graduate As Practical Nurses

Seven Observerland residents were among the 57 students who graduated from a one-year program in practical nursing conducted by the Ann Arbor public schools.

They are Mrs. Virginia Holger, Mrs. Victoria Oldaker and Mrs. Rae Ann Osborn of Westland, Idaho I. Dobbs of Catherine M. Brisbois of Plymouth, and Mrs. Jane Thomas of Garden City.

Graduation exercises were held last week in the Ann Arbor Pioneer High School.

A NEW CLASS of 60 students will enter the program on Sept. 14. Inquiries about the program should be addressed to Mae

Edna Doyle, R.N., director of the program, by calling 663-1332, or by writing her at 401 N. Division St., Ann Arbor, 48104. Applicants are now being accepted for the February, 1971 class.

One class of 60 students is admitted each September and February. The graduates become licensed Practical Nurses upon passing the state examination.

The program is affiliated with St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Ann Arbor; Beyer Memorial Hospital, Wayne; Emma L. Bixby Hospital, Adrian; and Wyandotte General Hospital.

MRS. GERALD F. FINNEGAN
(Darlene Beckwith)

Finnegans Wed In St. Aidan

St. Aidan Catholic Church in Livonia was the scene of the recent wedding of Darlene Beckwith and Gerald F. Finnegan.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce C. Beckwith of Louisville, Ky., formerly of Livonia, are parents of the bride. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald C. Finnegan of Boston.

The Rev. J. Edward Siefen officiated for the double-ring ceremony, and the bride's father gave her in marriage.

THE BRIDE wore a silk organza princess-style dress with pearl d'ange lace applied on the high neckline, bodice and lantern sleeves and on the chapel train.

A petal headpiece of lace and organza secured her elbow-length veil, and she carried a colonial bouquet of white and pink sweetheart roses with baby's breath and stephanotis.

Her only attendant, Mary Joan Sullivan of Grosse Ile, wore a green empire gown with a white lace bodice. Pink carnations formed her colonial bouquet.

James Edwards was best man and James Hoorn was usher.

The bride's mother chose a pink ensemble and Mrs. Finnegan was in blue.

THE COUPLE left for a Canadian honeymoon after a Roma Hall reception. Mr. and Mrs. James Hoorn hosted the reception.

The bridegroom is a graduate of St. Anselm College in New Hampshire and has served three years in the U.S. Army. He is employed by the federal government. The bride is working as a medical technician in Farmington.

MRS. ROBERT L. MURPHY
(Jacklyn Rickard)

Murphys Make Home In Texas

Following their marriage in Farmington, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lorne Murphy will live in Killeen, Texas, where the bridegroom is stationed at Fort Hood.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rickard of Westmorland Avenue, Farmington, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Murphy of Ravenscroft Avenue, Farmington.

The Rev. Carl Schultz performed the candlelight ceremony in Salem United Church of Christ.

GIVEN IN MARRIAGE by her father, the bride wore a Victorian-style silk organza gown with a venetian lace bodice and bishop sleeves. Her fingertip veil was of net and venetian lace. She carried a cascade of roses, carnations and stephanotis.

Nancy Godfrey, as maid of honor, and Mrs. Patrick Stempfen, the bride's sister, and Lynn Murphy, the bridegroom's sister, wore gowns of aqua blue chiffon and carried carnations, chrysanthemums and blue daisies to match their dresses.

DAVID DOUGLAS was best man, and Charles Rickard, the bride's brother, and Charles Hill were the ushers.

The bride's mother wore a gown of pale yellow silk with a lace bodice and sleeves, with matching accessories. Her corsage was of white and yellow carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a white and yellow cotton lace gown with matching accessories. Her corsage was of cymbidium orchids.

A reception was held in the Holiday Inn, Southfield, for 200 guests.

The bride is a 1968 graduate of Farmington High School. She attended Ferris State College and Oakland Community College where she obtained her degree as a dental assistant. The bridegroom graduated from North Farmington High in 1968. He entered the service after graduation and has served a year in Vietnam.
