

Ethan Allen Presents ...

"Your Own Style"

A Decorating Workshop

Come in and explore the many different design styles Americans enjoy today! Whatever your taste, wherever you live, you'll see it all in Ethan Allen's latest in-store event, "Your Own Style."

Learn how to create the fresh air look of California interiors, or the Country English look of a restored barn. Watch as we decorate a French Country chateau filled with all the romance and charm of the South of France. Enjoy the grace and elegance of a restored Charleston townhouse. You'll learn how to create a cozy livable vacation home at reasonable prices, and how to mix color and styles to give a New England home warmth and character.

This informative decorating program is just what you need to spark new design ideas for your home. Be part of this exciting event!
