No-contest pleas are entered in spa case

The Tuesday court sessions were the second relating to activities at five Oriental spas in the city. Raids at five spas Oct. 8-9 by Farmington Hills SPOT (Special Patriol Operations Team)—after a six-week police investigation following residents' complaints of sexrelated offenses at the storefront health spas—led to the arrest of one Korean-born man, one Japanese-born woman and 15 Korean-born women. Kun liwa Lemilev 27, of Farmington

Kun liwa Lemley, 27, of Farmington Hills, and Mi Han Dumala, 30, of Georgia, both employees of the Osaka Orlental Health Spa, each pleaded no contest to one count of engaging in an Immoral or illicit occupation. Both were originally charged with eight soliciting-related charges; seven of the counts were dismissed for the no contest pleas.

MI Ok Ho, 36, of Farmington Hills and owner of Osaka, according to Bledstoe, pleaded guilty to one count of a misdemeanor zoning violation, with other counts of lottering and of alding and abetting also dismissed.

and abetting aiso oismissed.

Tokyo employee Che Nam Snyder, 21, of Pontlac, originally charged with the same six counts as Martin, pleaded no contest to one count of lottering in a place of ill repute. Un Chu Wilson, 42, if Pontlac, also of the Tokyo spa and charged with the same six counts plus two counts of soliciting, pleaded no contest to engaging in an immoral or illicit occupation.

EACH OF the misdemeanor counts carries a maximum penalty of 90 days in jall and a $500 fine, according to officials.

Beckeyleg and defense attorney Don-ald Ricard brought the petition before Judge Hand Tuesday morning elmi-nating several of the original counts. No testimony was heard in either case, Biedsoe said.
No-contest pleas were accepted in the late January trial of three female,

Korean employees of the Kelko Orien-tal Health Spa, 29513 Nine Mile. Each was sentenced immediately to 90 days in Jall and a $500 fine, although the jail term was suspended in favor of one year's probation.

Sentencing of the five women in Tuesday's cases will be scheduled when pre-sentencing reports are complete—probably within one month, Beckerleg

FOUR OF the five Farmington Hills FOUR OF the five Farmington Hills spas are now closed, according to Farmington Hills Police Chief William Dwyer. The one remaining open—Toyko spa—will have 60 days from the March 10 effective date of the city's new massage regulation ordinance to comply.
Non-exempt businesses providing body massages must comply with business license and operating permit provisions and operating and inspection fees. The ordinance also addresses the layout of the business where massages will be provided, the need for the business to meet certain health-related provisions and the kind of apparel massage therapists must wear. Violation of the ordinance is a misdemeanor that upon conviction carries a penalty of up to a $500 fine and 90 days in jail. The Osaka spa closed als 14il, shortly after the police raid. The Kelko appeled the space of the police raid. The Kelko appeled to the space of the police raid. The Kelko appeled to the space of the police raid. The Kelko appeled to the space of the police raid. The Kelko appeled to the space of the police raid. The Kelko appeled to the space of the police raid. The Kelko appeled to the space of the police raid. The Kelko appeled to the police of the police of Dwyer said.

Federal investigations into the local Federal linestigation into the local Oriental health spas by the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the Immigration and Naturalization Service — to determine if there's any connection to an Asian-based international prostitution ring — are ongoing. Dwyer said completion could take from six months completion could take, from six months up to two years.

Of the 17 people arrested, nine still haven't gene to trial. "Wo're confident we're going to receive criminal convictions" in the remainder of the cases, Dwyer said.

The next trial is set for Kim's spa on Tuesday, April 8, in 47th District Court.

Interest dividends spur debate

Continued from Page 1

pending legislation Monday, which will allow the city to keep between $10,000 and $30,000 annually, depending on interest rates, according to city officials. The remainder of the $10,000 would come from Farmington Itilis or West Bibornfield Township.

ALTHOUGH OFFICIALS Interviewed believe there will be a comproning, Interim Superintendent Graham clays a conference of the comproning of the comproning of the comproning of the comproning of the comprosition of the comprosition of the comproning of the comprosition of th

"The courts followed the old common law principal of 'interest follows principal' in deciding the case," City Manager Robert Deadman told the county level, due to the scare at the county level, due to the scare at the county level, due to the scare at the county level, due to the scare of level and the county level, due to the scare of level and the county level and the thought the compromise would involve paying the taxing authorities three times per month. "It can't be disbursed much more often than that."

"THERE SHOULD be a reasonable amount of time to disburse money without penalty," Farmington Councilman Richard Tupper sald Monday, "We should be reimbursed partially, for what it costs us to collect the money."

Louis consumed saying the matter.

what it costs us to collect the money."
Lewis concurred, saying the matter of fees should be determined in the compromise package.
Tupper also noted the city "doesn't get interest from state or federal dollars given tous."
"We've in effect made our claim," Flanagan concluded. "It was done strictly in the spirit of trying to keep good relations where we can."

Good furniture should last a lifetime...or longer

10% OFF ALL FABRICS

29157 W. 5 Mile • Livonia E. of Middlebelt 525

No Z Z Limit!

CLIP & SAVE TO S GRAND OPENING Dry Cleaning

No-

*Bring in Any 2 Like Garments; pay the regular price on the 1st item, get the 2nd one for only 1.

Touch of Spring Cleaners
1 HOUR SERVICE AVAILABLE:
Coopen Must Be Presented With Incoming Orders
Monday thru Statuday 729 am no 1500 pm.

CLIP A CAME

CLIP & SAVE

He's remembered

Continued from Page 1

Continuo trem Page 1

And Pastry Johnson sald he could understand why: "The Swedish people are dedicated to an open society. With Sweden's non-volcince the last 200 years in terms of political assassinations, the prime minister was really pleased to have a country so open, a society so open."

Despite the assassination, Johnson doesn't think Palme's Social Democratic Party will dramatically change its open democracy philosophy.

phy.

As the pastor put it: "The country is dedicated to that philosophy. It is dedicated to that philosophy. It has worked for that for a long time. I don't expect the government to shove quickly to close society off. hope it doesn't react to ereach a limpt to fear in the country."

. JOINSON ADDED: "We all know kipw our (the American) people felt when President Kennedy was shot and killed. But to the people of Sweden, it's a deeper issue. They really don't expect violence to occur, and it hasn't – until now."

Swedish-Americans Olive and Carl Nystom of Farmington Hills have been Antioch Lutheran Church recembers for a year.

nembers for a year.
Olive figures the days of the prime minister moving about freely are over.

"Sweden has been fortunate nothing like this has happened before," she said. "But with the world the way it is today, bodyguard protec-

Olive believes the political philosophy of the people also could change.

"The people have always felt so free. But I don't know what they think now," she said. "I'm anxious to see what my husband's cousin, who lives near Stockholm, thinks."

TWO OTHER Swedish-Americans, Mildred and Bengt Brogren of Farmington Hills, affiliated with Antioch Lutheran Church 29 years ago.

Bengt said it's quite common for Sweden's litular "kings and queens to go around without bodyguards, too. That's the way things have always been in Scandinavia. I'd hate to see that change."

The last political assassination in Sweden occurred in 1792 when King ade ball.

Bengt said he would reserve judgment on whether the prime minister should be allowed to move about freely until Palme's killer is identi-freely unit ranness and I field.

"If it was a terrorist — and I couldn't understand why it would be because Sweden is a neutral country—I think a change might be neces-

LIVONIA RESIDENT Cortland

LIVONIA RESIDENT Cortland Book, president of the 400-nember Swedish Club, 22398 Ruth, Farmington Hills, believes "high-level ministry people" should receive full-time protection.

Providing protection is something all governments must do if they're "going to have quality people in office, no matter what the country is the Swedish-American said. "Assassination has become a worldwide problem."

Palme's successor, logar Carlsson, was assigned full-time protection Sunday although he was quoted Tuesday as saying he, too, expected to sometimes walk the streets nescorted.

Palme's assassination will heighten Swedish awareness of the danger of political assassination, in Book's view.

view.
"It's one thing to read about as-sassinations in other countries. But it's something entirely different when it hits home. You're no longer complacent about it," he said.

VIOLET CARLSON, membership chairwoman for the Swedish Club, said Palme's assassination "was al-most unbelievable and devastating."

most underevable and devastating."
"He was a humanitarian who wanted all classes of people to enjoy the good life," the Farmington Hills resident said. "Although many Swedish people did not agree with all of his ideas, he still was greatly respected and admired.

"Since Sweden has not had any-thing like this happen before, my husband and I believe the foreign el-ement is responsible."

Both Carlson and her husband, Os-car, are Swedish-Americans. The Swedish Club board of directors will discuss a possible memori-al for Palme at its next meeting Thursday, March 13, Book sald.

GET A QUOTE

FROM

26133 Novi Rd., Novi, MI 48050

SPECIALISTS IN

BARRY J. BARMAN

(313)348-5600 Res.: 569-4945

Come in for your free discount card for fulure purchases.

RANDY WISE Field Seles Agent

(313)348-5600 Ros.: 459-2714

FREE MEAL

With purchase of meal of equal or greater value, up to $5.00.

(Valid weekdays after 4 p.m., Anytime Sat. or Sun, with this coupon) Does not include beverage, desserts or extras.

37057 Grand River, Farmington Grand River/Halsted Plaza Expires March 18, 1986.

19th Anniversary Sale CUSTOM REUPHOLSTERY

THE ART OF REUPHOLSTERY.
Building on your frame (where you save big dollars), the upholsterer re-ties the springs, puts in new webbling, all new padding, filling and totally re-creates the sofa. This is all hand-work involving a high order of skills. What you get back is a piece of furniture in the class of custom-made.

back is a piece of furniture in the class of custom-made.
THE FABRIC ADVANTAGE.
A significant advantage in reuphoisting is fubric seletion. You choose from a practically panoramic range

CALL 478-6969 AMERICAN VINYL COYERS REUPHOLSTERY,

INC. 17520 West Eight Mile Farmington Hills

Fingers Now $7.95

WV5 Orchard Lake Read 20707 Grand River Plot.
Farmington Halls, MI RedSed, MI

Offer expires April 18, 1986.

