

Trip focuses on art, architecture

The art, the architecture and culture of Spain are the focus of 14-day tour, May 17-31, being offered by Travel Diplomat of Kalamazoo.

The two-week itinerary will begin with a flight from Detroit to New York's Kennedy Airport with an overnight TWA flight from there to Madrid. The two days of sight-seeing in Madrid will include easy access from the Hotel Palace to the Prado, home of many great works of art.

From Madrid the travelers will go to Toledo, the Museum City, with sight-seeing tours to the Gothic cathedral begun in 1227, the 14th century Synagogue del Tránsito, El Greco's home and the little church of San to Tome, home of El Greco's masterpiece,

"The Burial of Count Orgaz."

OTHER STOPS will be in Cordoba, town of flowered patios and once the most important city in Islam, with a large interesting Jewish quarter, Carmona, Seville, Granada, Murcia, Valencia, Tortosa and Barcelona.

The tour will visit the Alhambra Palace in Granada, beaches and fishing villages en route to Valencia, the pottery workshops at Manises, the museums dedicated to Catalan art and archeology in Barcelona and many other important art and architectural sights. Accommodations will be in grand hotels and paradores. The tour price, which includes breakfasts and 11 dinners in the Spanish manner, is $1,798. For information, contact Travel Diplomat, 129 E. Michigan Ave., Kalamazoo, 49007 or telephone 616 345-7600. Mitzel DeLuca of Travel Diplomat is the tour leader.

Holding art benefit

Paint Creek Center for the Arts will host its fourth auction benefit at 7:30 p.m. Saturday. Tickets are $25 a couple, $13 single. Complimentary wine and hors d'oeuvres will be served.

The Center is at 407 Pine, Rochester. For information, call 651-4110.

Dance Company to perform

The Renaissance Dance Company of Detroit will give a program at 3 p.m. Sunday at the Jewish Community Center, 8600 W. Maple, West Bloomfield. The eight-member company, dressed in authentic 16th century costumes, will do a dance-drama titled, "A Jewish Dance Master of the Renaissance" based on the life of Guglielmo el Ebreo de Pesaro who wrote the first manual of dance in Italy in 1483. Michael Burden will play Guglielmo and Harriet Berg will take the part of his wife Sofia. Tickets, $3, are available at the door. For information, call 967-4030.
