

Greeting the new season with a drossy Easter hunt at Tally Hall in Farmington Hills with fashions from Gould's Children's Boutique of Birmingham: Lauren Sasin (left) wears a hand-knit two-piece peach shirt and sweater trimmed in ecru lace, $172, with matching hair bow in peach satin, $13, white ballet slippers with peach satin ribbons, $14, and ecru shimmer stockings, $11. Erin Halligan sparkles in spring white in the European tradition in swiss cotton dress with puff sleeves, $96, white straw hat, $7, white ballet slippers trimmed with pearls and satin, $46, and white lace socks with two rose of pearls, $17. Melissa Cannavasser is delighted with her watercolor floral print dress in pastel colors of blue, pink, yellow and white in cotton with voile portrait collar, $96; gold earrings with faux sapphires, $8; and gold heart bracelet, $10.

Manufacturing Makes The Big Difference

"We can save you a lot of money and you may select from one of Canada's largest collections of quality furs including Fisher, Sable, Mink & Stone Martin."

"Our American customers tell us our prices are half, to say nothing of the exchange rate."

Bloomfield Plaza

More than just a pretty face.

Bloomfield Plaza has a new face and a spruced up parking lot with landscaped plateaus. It's beautiful! But we've kept the old attractions that have brought people to Bloomfield Plaza for almost 29 years. A marvelous variety of fine shops with everything for men, women, children and household. Parking is still just a hop, skip and a jump from your favorite shop entrances and merchants are the most helpful you'll find around town. There are restaurants for a feast or a snack. So put the fun back into shopping. You see, beauty is more than skin deep at Bloomfield Plaza.

Visit these fine shops.
