CC netters on schedule

By Brad Emmons
staff writer

The pressure is already on the Redford Catholic Central tennis team this season, but coach Frank Garlicki believes his players are up to the challenge.

Defending state Class A champions are ranked No. 1 this week by a state-wide coaches poll.

And the Shamrocks proved they were up to the ranking by winning the eight-team Holly Invitational Saturday. CC captured four of the seven flights en route to a team-high 18 points. Midland Dow and East Lansing finished second and third, respectively, with 14 and 12. (See statistical summary.)

Five of the eight schools in this tournament are ranked in Class A, said Garlicki.

The Shamrocks will play an ambitious schedule this season.

CC travels Saturday to Monroe and will face Dearborn, a top Class

B team; Southfield-Lathrup, its stiffest competitor in the regional; and Sylvania Southview, an Ohio state-class champion.

On Saturday, April 26, CC travels to Ann Arbor Pioneer to meet another host of state-ranked teams.

CC ALSO plans to face Class B champion Bloomfield Hills Cranbrook and "B" contender Okemos. Two other state-ranked teams from Ohio are also on the agenda.

"The only team we won't see that is ranked (in Class A) is Bloomfield Hills Andover," said the CC coach.

Seven of CC's top 10 players return. Lost to graduation were Mark Egalino, No. 1 singles; Bob Heimlich, No. 4 singles; and Greg Grabowski, No. 1 doubles.

And although juniors Mark Agah and Phil Engelson were both ousted in first-round matches at Holly, Garlicki is confident the pair will be heard from once the season unfolds.

"There were no seedings at Holly, and both Mark and Phil drew tough matches right off the bat," said the CC coach. "Personally, I think Mark can make it to the semifinals at the state meet (at No. 1 singles) and Phil can get to the quarterfinals or semis (at No. 2)."

GARICKI admits "we're actually better than last year."

Steve Campbell (No. 3 singles) and freshman Tony Mikulec both won titles at Holly.

CC also took two of three doubles finals with returnee Jeff Huston and newcomers Jim Gillespie winning at No. 1, with holdovers Walt Bartels and Mark Frederick taking the No. 3 title.

With the return of seven tested veterans, along with three talented newcomers, CC may never feel the pressure in 1988.

Sill's return has impact on league

Since Alita Sill came back from the South little more than a month ago to open a sport shop at Westland Bowl, she has made her presence known in both women's all-star leagues.

She hasn't bowled a sufficient number of games to qualify for any of the top awards, but she's leading both leagues in average and may be difficult to beat by the end of the season. At the moment, she is averaging 207 and is far ahead of her closest rivals.

WONDERLAND LANES: Mark Hammel kept up the high-scoring pace in the classic when he came through with a 769 series. On the women's side, Georgia Broknehouse was high scorer with a 669.

MERRI BOWL: Kirk Nagle joined the 700 club when he posted a 711 to pace the bowlers for the week. Mario Barskocz showed the way to the women with a 672 and Kirk Hoelsen had a 658 in the mens league.

WOODLAND LANES: Jay Cyril

in the pocket by W.W. Edgar posted a 690 in a race he lost by nine pins, while Sylvia Louks paced the women with a 245.

WESTLAND BOWL: Rede Davidson took the spotlight when he turned in a 719. In the mens competition, Pete Overlatis was high scorer in the morning league with a 590.

BEL-AIRE: Max Goodgovian was high scorer for the week with a 681.

GARDEN LANES: Ann Popek showed the way in the morning league with a 165, a 155 and a 244.

SUPER BOWL: Len Wegryn, who carries a 158 average, finished with a 288 game.
