

Falcons upend North, 3-1

Thursday, April 24, 1986 O&E

(F3D)

Leslie Martin (No. 14) battles with North's Sandy Spahn. Martin played a key role in the Falcons' win.

There are two ways of analyzing Farmington's surprising 3-1 soccer victory over rival North Farmington Monday.

You can take it from North coach Cathy Cole's point of view: "Farmington came to win and we just sat back and let them win."

Or you can take it from Farmington coach Ed Bartram's point of view: "We worked really hard together and played well as a team."

Either way you look at it, the Falcons put the boot to North.

The two teams played to a 0-0 tie after a half. Then Leslie Martin began taking charge. First she set up Laurie Dingle for Farmington's first goal 10 minutes into the second half.

AFTER NORTH'S Missy Salydown scored (from Chris Debelo) halfway through the second half, Martin set up Jennifer Misaros for what proved to be the game-winning goal.

Jenny Cunningham added an insurance goal off a corner kick with 10 minutes left.

Bartram was most pleased with the play of his defense. "All three of our fullbacks played very well," he said of Cunningham, Karen Popyk and Katie McDonald. "And Leslie Martin is doing a tremendous job in the middle."

North got off just eight shots on Falcon goalie Cyndi Reiden. Farmington took 12 shots on North goalie Sue Schlot.

"As far as our team preparation: physically, they were ready; mentally, they were not," Cole said. "Obviously, I didn't think we had that many problems. We just had problems getting the ball to the target."

Cole admitted that her team may have been a touch overconfident coming into the match. Which, understandably, made Cole more than unhappy since her team has won just once in five matches.

FARMINGTON evened its overall record at 3-3 Tuesday with a convincing 11-0 whipping of Southfield.

On the day, Martin scored a goal and notched six assists. She assisted Dingle on Farmington's first three goals. Dingle finished with four goals.

Jennifer Misaros and Denise Nyburg each scored twice while Amy Smith and Jennifer Link each scored once.

Reiden posted the shutout.

Franklin kickers seek respect

Livonia Franklin girls soccer coach Judy Brda has to be wondering when Western Lakes teams are going to start taking her squad serious.

"The Patriots rallied to gain a 4-4 tie with heavily-favored Plymouth Clinton Monday night."

"We certainly aren't a Livonia Stevenson-caliber team, but they should take us seriously," Brda said of the Chiefs. "We tied them last year, too."

It didn't look like Canton was taking anyone for granted early. The Chiefs scored the first three goals of the game. Kendra Whiteley, Molly Menarde and Kellie Dalley each scored in the first half.

But after that, Canton cruised and Franklin caught up.

Sophomore Deanne Brda, who scored three goals in the match, and Kelly Holzawart scored before the end of the half to bring Franklin into contention. Whiteley scored midway through the second-half to give the Chiefs a 4-3 lead.

With 15 minutes left in the match, Brda scored her second goal on a penalty kick. Then, with four minutes left in the match, Brda took a pass from Heather Colvin and beat Canton goalie Jenny Saul for the game-tying goal.

"Franklin's goalie got a good workout," said Canton coach Mike

Morgan. "But we just couldn't stick it in the net."

Said Brda: "Our defensive team was super strong. This ended up a good game, I'm very happy."

Canton (2-1) in the Western Lakes, 4-1-1 overall) outshot Franklin 20-12.

The Patriots are 2-2-1 on the year.

CHURCHILL 13, HARRISON 0: Amy Weber, Jamie Kubacki and Chris Paciero scored two goals each as unbeaten Livonia Churchill had an easy time with winless Farmington Harrison on Monday.

The Chargers (7-0-1) also got goals from Liz Monroe, Jennifer Huegli, Colleen Churchill, Kellen Allen, Julie Myers, Kathy Kelley and Jennifer Flowers.

The Hawks are 0-3-1.

STEVENS 19, W.L. CENTRAL 0: While we're on the subject of blowouts...

Mary Pionini and Karen Carney tallied four goals apiece, Michelle Hussey three and Maureen Sudek two Monday to lead visiting Livonia Stevenson.

Shots on goal for this match: 40-9 in favor of the Spartans. Perhaps the Michigan High School Athletic Association should initiate a mercy rule in soccer.

Joe Zaraski, Kim Paterson, Carrie Nemecek, Lori Green, Charlene Sudek and Marcel Jamrog also scored for the Spartans.

Elnae Zager scored her fifth shutout. The Spartans are 6-0.

SALEM 5, FARMINGTON 0: Defense won this match for Plymouth Salem on Saturday.

Goals: Ellen Schmeckel and Jenny Cebula faced only seven shots, thanks to the outstanding play of defenders Chris Casler, Michelle Cygan, Nikki Stojeba and Maria Wardhouse. Midfielders Lisa Hysko and Tracy Krajewski also played well.

Jill Estey, Suzie Balconi, Julie Tortora, Jennifer Belhart and Missy Smith all scored goals while Belhart, Terri King, Lacey and Tortora notched assists.

The Rocks are 3-1-1 on the season.

MERCY 9, GALLAGHER 0: The Marlins had things going their way Tuesday, beating host Harper Woods Bishop Gallagher on a windy and cold day on a muddy field.

Farmington Hills Mercy got a four-goal effort from sophomore center-forward Stacy Nolta.

Karen Baldas, Maribeth Knight, Jenny Kuzma and Kathy Rush also scored for the Marlins, now 2-1-1 on the season.
