Falcon kickers fall in 2nd half

Pep talks are amazing things. If delivered effectively, they can light a fire under a team and induce a higher level of execution.

That was the case Wednesday night as Plymouth Canton's soccer team overcame a dubious first half to beat Farmington 1-0.

The first half was all Farmington. "I said Canton coach Mike Morgan, whose team trailed 1-0 after 40 minutes. 'I had a little talk with my team at halftime. I more or less appealed to their sense of self-worth. It was a different game after that.'"

Michelle Longor scored twice within the first 10 minutes of the second half to put Canton on top. Trish Greenhalgh, off an assist from Longor, added the insurance goal. Stacy Schalm scored the winning goal, a pretty passing play from Laurie Dingle and Leslie Martin.

"As far as I'm concerned, we completely outplayed them in the first half," said Farmington coach Ed Bartram. "We outshot them 12-2 in the first half. Canton's statistics showed a 7-5 shooting edge for Farmington. We had two or three scoring chances that we just missed or it could have been a different game."

"It's hard to believe that second half. In my opinion, they scored three pretty cheap goals. They outshut us in the second half, they didn't really outplay us."

Canton goalie Jenny Saul helped stave off Farmington, making 23 saves, according to Farmington's stats (nline according to Canton's stats).

Farmington (5-5-0) had a rougher go of it Friday as Oshkosh's No. 2 team, Livonia Stevenson, lambasted the Falcons 9-0. Sue Zatorski scored four times to pace the Spartans (11-0-1).

NORTHVILLE 3, CANTON 0: No pep talk could help Friday night. Northville's defense was just too stingy.

After a tightly-contested first-half, Northville didn't allow Canton a shot on goal in the second half.

"It was really one of our better games of the year," said Morgan. "But it wasn't enough." Northville got off just 13 shots on the Canton goal but made good on three of them.

The Chiefs are 5-4-1 on the season.

MERCY 3, SEAHOLM 2: With this non-league win Friday, Farmington

Hills Mercy has played seven straight matches without defeat since losing the season-opener to No. 1-ranked Livonia Churchill.

Margaret DeMatina scored an unassisted goal and Stacy Nolta scored a pair of assists from Mari-beth Knight to boost the Marlins.

All-star Katie Andree scored twice from Birmingham Seaholm (7-3-1).

Mercy outshot the Maples 25-12, but shooting edge offsettable in a large sense to the fine midfield play of Amy Stock.

Mercy had an easier time of it Thursday, whipping Catholic League foe Bishop Borgess 12-0. Colleen Rafferty (two goals, two assists) and Mary Beth Larabell (two goals, one assist) led the way.

Shannon Bebes, Leigh Clancy, Jenny Kuzma, Nolta, Kathy Rush, Stock, Julie Hale and Sue Swienkowski each scored once. Hale added three assists.

Kelly Beaudry earned the shutout as Mercy outshot Borgess 48-2.

The Marlins are 3-0-2 in the Catholic League, 5-1-2 overall.

SALEM 10, HARRISON 0: Freshmen accounted for six of the 10 Plymouth Salem goals Wednesday in this one-sided Western Lakes match.

Jill Estey and Jo Wiklund led the Rocks' kiddie-corps with two goals each. Estey now has 12 goals on the season. Missy Smith and Nicole Stojeba, both freshmen, also scored.

Senior captain Julie Tortora scored twice, Rachel Thiel and Pam Mayer once each.

Salem (6-2-1) outshot the Hawks 34-8. Credit Jenny Cebula and Ellen Schnackel with the shutout.

Harrison is 0-8-1.

N. FARMINGTON 9, LAKELAND 1: Jean Anzovra, Kris McMinn and Lisa Nordlin led the assault for North Farmington with two goals apiece in a non-league match Friday.

Terry Kaitz, Mo O'Brian and Sandy Spain also scored. The Raiders outshot Milford Lakeland 32-2.

The Raiders played well on Wednesday, but fell to Western Lakes power Northville 4-0. "Our defense played excellent," said North coach Cathy Cole. "We are starting to get into the game mentally now. We played well."

The Raiders are 3-6-1 on the year.
