

College interns to join cable TV staff

Lark Samouelian is executive director of the Southwestern Oakland Cable Connection.

By Lark Samouelian
special writer

The Southwestern Oakland Cable Commission will host five college student interns for the summer months.

Their backgrounds range from television to journalism, therefore, their energies will help our outreach to educate and provide leadership in Community Programming.

through Cable Television.

The five are: Tamara Vichey, Lana Dealey, John Enright, Jennifer Thomas and Robla Nominelli. Their responsibilities will include lining up local citizens certified already in television programming and guide them through their first real hands-on experience in Community Access Television. Lark Samouelian, Judy Kral and John Virley will oversee their progress.

The anticipated projects are: To produce a news program at least once every two weeks. (Local news is to be the emphasis and interpretation on how national issues will affect our community. To assist in preproduction and research on controversial issues in preparation of the third season of "Insight." Host, Fred Liebman and Executive Producer, John Virley will team up again. To coordinate a summer all SWOCC-MetroVision Channel 12 and 10 Newsletter.

Any and all service groups, non-profit organizations and homeowners groups are encouraged to send us press releases of their happenings. Individuals who would like to be considered for crew on the News Show should contact the SWOCC office to commit to specific times and van. Any one with raw footage of scenic characteristics of Farmington, Novi and Farmington Hills please notify us at 473-7265.

Metrovision of Oakland County's public-access programming for the week of May 19.
