Struck Schools May Forfeit Aid

LANSING -- Lt. Gov. William Milliken is fervishly busy attempting to end four teachers strikes, now three weeks old, before next Friday (Sept. 27) in order to prevent state aid before next Friday (Sept. 27) in order to prevent state aid from being removed for those schools.

Millikes over the weekend, is concerned about the legal problems that will arise if the striking leachers do not return by Friday, the day the official enrollments will be tabulated for state aid.

The headcount determines how much money a district will receive and Milliken doubts if a school which is not in session that day can qualify for aid:

WASHINGTON - The conflirmation of Abe Fortas as Supreme Court Chlef Justice has reached the Senate floor with leaders of both parties expressing doubt that a threatened fillbuster can be broken.
Fortas' nomination won approval of the Senate floor, own approval of the Senate Justiciary Committee by a 10 to 6 vote. Once a fillbuster starts on the Senate floor, a two-thirds majority of senators voting is ecessary to put a debate-limiting cloture ruite in effect. Opponents, which include Republicans and Southern Democrats, claim enough votes to keep the fillbuster going, Fortas, an associate justice on the Supreme Court, was picked by Fresident Johnson June 26 to succeed Earl Warren as chief justice. Warren will continue to serve until a successor is confirmed.
