

Teen Is Cinderella

MARGARETHA KLYN

A statuesque, 16-year-old Southfield High School sophomore will reign as Cinderella at the Oct. 3 Cinderella Ball, staged annually by the Women's Committee of the Tuberculosis and Health Society, in the Sheraton-Cadillac Hotel.

Margaretha Klyn was introduced to members of the press, radio and television during a luncheon at the hotel by Mrs. William L. Mitchell, chairman of the selection committee.

MARGARETHA is one of four children of Mr. and Mrs. Nicolaus Klyn of Southfield. Margaretha's experience with tuberculosis came several years after it was determined through a routine tuberculin skin test, that she was a "positive reactor."

BARBARA HARDEN

DONNA OESTREICH

MARCIA CARR

Mr. and Mrs. LeVerne Harden of Pembroke Avenue, Livonia, announce the engagement of their daughter, Barbara Lynn, to Thomas Herman Levi of Birchwood Avenue, Farmington. Her fiancé also graduated from MSU this year and is a law student at Wayne State University. They plan to be married Dec. 19.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Oestreich of Alvin Street, Garden City, announce the engagement of their daughter, Donna, to David Gizzi, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Gizzi of Denne Street, Livonia. The bride-elect is a graduate of West Senior High School, and her fiancé is a graduate of Franklin High School in 1969 and attends Scholcraft Community College. Her fiancé, also a 1969 Plymouth High graduate, is a student at Wayne State University. He also is employed by radio station WJLD in Garden City. No wedding date has been set.

Mrs. Leslie Carr of Adams Avenue, Plymouth, announces the engagement of her daughter, Marcia Jean, to Jeffrey Carl Morgan, son of Mrs. Delmar Cockrum of Ann Arbor Road, Plymouth, and R. Morgan of Pasadena, Texas. The bride-elect, also the daughter of the late Mr. Carr, graduated from Plymouth High School in 1969 and attends Scholcraft Community College. Her fiancé, also a 1969 Plymouth High graduate, is a student at Wayne State University. He also is employed by radio station WJLD in Garden City. No wedding date has been set.

Samuels Married In Livonia

Beverly Ann Wicks and Ronald Theodore Samuel were united in marriage in a wedding ceremony Aug. 2, in Rosedale Gardens United Presbyterian Church.

The Rev. William T. Lovick heard the couple's vows.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wicks of Grandon Avenue, Livonia. Mr. and Mrs. Theodore C. Samuel of Davisburg, Mich., are parents of the bridegroom.

She carried a Bible with Stephanotis and ivy and ribbon streamers.

Mrs. Ronald Korte and Barbara Boyd, the honor attendants, wore gowns with white cotton lace bodices and citron chiffon skirts.

Bridesmaids Joyce Zawrotny and Susan Rose wore similar gowns with moss green skirts. The color was chartreuse for the gowns of three other bridesmaids, Ruth Channels, Sally Filley and Yvonne Samuel.

Dan Ely was best man. The ushers were Russell, Lester, Gerald and Ivan Samuel, brothers of the bridegroom, and Ronald Wicks, brother of the bride.

MRS. RONALD SAMUEL (Beverly Wicks)

GIVEN IN MARRIAGE by her father, the bride wore a white organza empire gown with bishop sleeves, long chapel train and seed pearl and alexandrite trim.

Lace leaves and seed pearls fashioned the headpiece that held her three-tier elbow-length veil.

Card Party Set

The Detroit West Chapter of Valparaiso University Guild will hold a luncheon and card party Thursday, Oct. 15, in Holy Cross Lutheran Church, Grand River and Whitecomb, Detroit.

Reservations are necessary. Call Mrs. G. W. Schudlich at VE 6-7395.

THE BRIDE'S MOTHER wore a mint green chiffon dress and the bridegroom's mother chose a two-piece gold silk brocade ensemble.

The reception for 275 guests was held in St. Clement's church hall in Dearborn.

Rau-Pass Vows Spoken In Bethany

Ceramic Show

More than 75 Michigan Ceramic Studios and manufacturers will participate in the Detroit Ceramic Show in the State Fairgrounds Community Arts Building from 11 a.m. to 9 p.m. Friday and Saturday, Oct. 2 and 3, and from 12 noon to 6 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 4.

The show is designed to show the public the hobby possibilities of work in ceramics. A hobbyist competitive exhibit is included.

Cheryl Ruth Pass became the bride of Lawrence Peter Rau in a double-ring candle-light ceremony Aug. 21 in Bethany Baptist Church, Livonia.

Dr. Bert C. Kreller officiated and Robert Phelps, youth director at the church, sang and recited a poem, "They Twain Shall Be One Flesh."

Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Pass of Elmira Avenue, Livonia, are parents of the bride. The bridegroom is the son of John Rau of Daisy Lane, Southfield, and the late Mrs. Lillian Rau.

MRS. LAWRENCE RAU (Cheryl Ruth Pass)

THE BRIDE, escorted to the altar by her father, wore an empire gown of nylon organza over satin with lace bodice and cathedral train. A Juliet cap of matching lace held her cathedral-length veil, and she carried a cascade of white carnations and pink roses.

Flower girl Robin Pass, sister of the bride, wore a pink dress and carried a basket of pink and yellow miniature carnations.

JOHN RAU was best man for his brother. The ushers were Thomas Verkerke, Paul Verkerke, Dan White, Gregg Baron and Walter Richards. Uncle of the bride.

The bride's mother chose a blue crepe dress with lace bodice and a matching lace coat. Mrs. John Rau wore a gold crepe tulle dress with gold and pearl trim.

As maid of honor, Karen Verron wore a gown of white nylon tulle over pale pink nylon with short sleeves and wide white embroidery trim on the empire bodice. Her headpiece also was pink and her flowers were white carnations tipped in pink.

The bridesmaids were Deborah and Darlene Pass, sisters of the bride, Kathrine Carney and Susan Chopp. They wore similar gowns in pale yellow and carried yellow-tipped carnations.

After a reception at the bride's home, the couple had a weekend honeymoon at Hawaiian Gardens, Holly. They will live in Hazel Park.

The new Mrs. Rau is a 1970 graduate of Franklin High School and past president of Bethany Baptist Young People. Her husband has studied two years at the Lawrence Institute of Technology.
