DON'T ATTEND THIS

Farmington Area Jaycee Auxiliary is NOT sponsoring a baby-sitting clinic this year. Possibly as a hoax, two-year-old flyers have been circulated announcing a clinic at Farmington Junior High School beginning Oct. 16. The public is asked to ignore these flyers. The information on them is erroneous.

Jaycees Hunt Winning Woman

FARMINGTON The Farmington Area Jaycee Auxiliary has started its annual search for the area woman to whom the group will present its community service award, designating the recipient as the "Outstanding Woman of the Year."

IN THE PAST, this award has been given to young women under the age of 35 years, in conjunction with a state-wide Auxiliary project called "Four Outstanding Young Women of Michigan."

However, this year, the local auxiliary has decided to waive the age limit and include those over 35 years of age who have contributed to the community in the way of outstanding and unselfish service and contribution.

Entrants must be residents of the City of Farmington of the Township, be active in local affairs or projects for the benefit of the community and who have been instrumental in organizing or conducting a worthwhile community activity or project through her own efforts.

ALL ENTRIES MUST be filed with the auxiliary no later than October 30, 1970. The award questionnaire may be obtained by contacting Mrs. Craig Rockafellow, 23819 Wilmarth, Farmington, Mich. 48064, 494-6268.

The award recipient will be announced in early December, providing there are sufficient nominees.

Belcher Gets Promotion

FARMINGTON U.S. Army SP4 Gordon O. Belcher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marlin Belcher of 2134 Jefferson, Farmington, was recently promoted to his present rank while serving in the Panama Canal Zone.

Belcher has been with the U.S. Army Forces Southern Command since February as an Infantryman in Company A, 4th Battalion, 10th Infantry, 193rd Infantry Brigade.
