Falcons roll to 5 straight, eye road trip

A.J. Baker, commissioner of the Midwest Summer Hockey League, made it official Tuesday: The Challenge Cup series will continue in Chicago.

The past three seasons, the champions from the hockey league have traveled to Chicago to play in a tournament with an all-star team and the league champs from the Chicago Windy City Summer Hockey League. Financial troubles in Chicago had cast some doubts on the future of the Challenge Cup, but Baker received the go-ahead for the fourth annual series Tuesday.

"We'll go there Aug. 16 and 17," Baker said. "Our champions will play the Windy City All-Stars the first day, then we'll play their championship team the second day."

THE SUMMER LEAGUE season is just under three weeks old and already one team is bugging Baker to make reservations in Chicago.

The Falcons are flying high, winning five straight games after playing to a draw in their opener. The team won three straight last week.

The most recent victory came Sunday night, a 13-7 bombardment of the Wildcats. Dave Davidson, one of the league's youngest players, scored three goals and dished out five assists. Kenny Chaput, one of the league's smallest players, notched the hat trick in goals and assists.

Jeff Dobek scored three goals and Pat Marody added two for the Wildcats. The Wildcats knocked off the Broncos last Tuesday 8-6 getting two goals from Livonia Franklin product Tim Olschanski and two more from Dobek.

Last Thursday, the Falcons beat the Broncos 8-5. E.J. Sauer (Hennepin) played superbly in the nets for the Spartans.

scored two goals and added two assists. Plymouth Salem grad Chris Belhart added three assists.

Eric Van Acker (Chicago Lake Forest College) and Dave Bramble (Western Michigan) each scored twice for the Broncos.

Last Tuesday, the Falcons won a 4-3 thriller against the Spartans. Bill Terry (Kalamazoo Red Wings) scored the game-winner with 20 seconds left in the game.

IN OTHER GAMES Sunday, the Bakes Conference-leading Spartans snapped a two-game losing skid with a 5-3 win against the Huskies. The Spartans, coached by Baker, scored four goals in the final 10 minutes of the game.

Bill Trisch (Potsdam College) scored two goals and Joel Kovach (Southfield) added three assists. Catholic Central product Jeff Safran played superbly in the nets for the Spartans.
