

The colored pencil drawing of the blue-winged teal brought Lisa Kelly Weber of Grawn a third-place award.

Adam James Thomas of Ypsilanti won first place for his pastel drawing of an opossum family.

Students win wildlife awards

The three winners and 30 honorable mention entries in the Cranbrook Institute of Science's biannual Wildlife Art Awards competition are on display at the institute through August. The presentation ceremony is at 4 p.m. Saturday. The competition for Michigan high school students is designed to foster a deeper appreciation of wildlife art. After August, the exhibit will tour 12 sites in Michigan for a year — museums, nature centers and libraries. Museum hours are 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. weekdays, 7-10 p.m. Friday, 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. Saturday and 1-5 p.m. Sunday. Admission charge, 500 Lone Pine, Bloomfield Hills.

Playing the carillon

With only three recitals remaining in the 1986 Christ Church Cranbrook carillon series, Roland Richter will perform a varied program at 4 p.m. Sunday, at the church on Lone Pine and Cranbrook, Bloomfield Hills.

The public may attend free to listen to the most active carillon in the metropolitan Detroit area from the church lawn or across Lone Pine in the Cranbrook Gardens. Programs are in the church narthex.

Associate carillonneur of Kirk in the Hills, Bloomfield Hills, Richter will play works arranged by Beverly Buchanan (Christ Church Cranbrook carillonneur), Leen't Hart and Milford

Myhre, among others. These include "America," "Yankee Doodle," "Amazing Grace" and American, English and German hymns and tunes. He also will play works written for the carillon by Van den Gheyn and Berghuys.

Richter has taught music and language arts in the Pontiac Public Schools since 1958 and has served as organist at local churches. He studied carillon with Frederick Marriot, Kirk in the Hills organist-carillonneur, and is a member of the Guild of Carillonneurs in North America. Also an organist, Richter is a music education graduate of the University of Minnesota.
