Featured in 'Art at Meadow Brook'

The 10th annual, invitational "Art at Meadow Brook" will be 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Saturday and Sunday in the courtyard of Meadow Brook Hall on the east campus of Oakland University, Rochester. Admission is free to see works of more than 100 artists. Pictured is a watercolor painting by Pat Dunn Bremner of Birmingham; functional white stoneware by Lynn Gray of Birmingham; and table linens by Carla Berlin of Bloomfield Hills. All three are successful artists who do both local and regional shows. The show is sponsored by the Creative Council, founded at Meadow Brook in 1968 to encourage women in the arts.

Detroit Grand Opera auditions

The Detroit Grand Opera Association, in cooperation with Marygrove College, announces its annual opera auditions.

Auditions for these awards — the Samuel J. Lang $3,000 Scholarship Award, the Elizabeth Hodges Donovan $1,000 Memorial Award and the Henry E. Wenger $1,000 Memorial Award — will be Oct. 4-5 at the theater, Marygrove College Liberal Arts Building, 8425 West McNichols, Detroit.

This opera auditions program is sponsored by the Detroit Grand Opera Association under the auspices of the Metropolitan Opera National Council.

The preliminary competition will begin at 10 a.m. on Saturday, Oct. 4. Semi-finals start at 10 a.m. on Sunday, Oct. 5, with final auditions at 1:30 p.m. A reception for winners, judges and the public will follow the final auditions.

The purpose of these auditions is to discover new opera talent and to encourage these young singers in their careers.

The Samuel J. Lang, Elizabeth Hodges Donovan and Henry E. Wenger Awards are for the advanced study in voice and operatic training.

The three competition winners will go on to the Metropolitan Opera National Council Auditions on Jan. 10 in Pittsburgh, to compete for additional cash prizes.

Applications are now being accepted. Completed forms must be returned by Sept. 29.
