clarification

In Monday's edition of the Farmington Observer, the date of prenatal and post partum exercises classes was erroneously given as Monday. The story should have said that the classes are available 10-11 a.m. Saturdays in Providence Hospital-Novi Center, 10 Mile and Haggerty.

The classes run continually. Participants can join at any time. For more information about the class, call instructor Debra Hoppe, 478-1047.

HFH seeks local volunteers

Hospital volunteers are sought by the Volunteer Services Department of Henry Ford Hospital-West Bloomfield.

Nursery hosts its open house

Mayfair Co-operative Nursery hosts its annual open house 1-3 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 12, at the school, in Orchard Methodist Church, 30450 Farmington Road between 13 and 14 Mile, Farmington Hills.

The school has some space available in its Group II class for four- and five-year-olds, which meets in the afternoon Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

For more information call the school, 626-2759.

In banking, too, small can be versatile.

Over the years, as the Swiss Army knife proved its handiness to more than a few sportsmen, it also helped cut away at the popular opinion that "bigger is always best."

We'd like to do the same for banking. So we offer our customers a few benefits the bigger guys can't. Like more personal service. The kind of individual attention that lets our customers know that we value them for their confidence in us, not just for their cash.

Like designing programs to handle our customers' needs, not our own. And like lower annual percentage rates than larger financial institutions can offer, on such important programs as our Equity Connection and Overdraft Connection.

Stop by United Savings Bank and see how versatile we can be for you. We may be small in size, but we're very big on serving our customers.

United Savings Bank
BETTER BANKING.
BECAUSE WE HAVE TO.
