Sipping season Cider mills offer family fun

Michigan's tantalizing blend of ciders ranging from tangy to sweet, combined with outdoor activities for the whole family are beckoning thousands of visitors to cider mills this fall.

"The opportunity to enjoy crisp autumn air, savor a glass of apple cider and bask in a kaleidoscope of trees splashed in red, yellow and orange are exciting autumn treats for everyone to enjoy," said AAA Michigan travel services manager James Drury.

"Prices are up only a few cents over last year and health-conscious families know that fresh apple cider is low in sodium and relatively low in calories," Drury added.

"This year's apple crop is one-third smaller than last year due to spring frost damage, but the quality remains good."

Some 700 million pounds of apples are expected to be plucked from Michigan trees this year, with the state producing 10 percent of the nation's apple crop. Only Washington and New York harvest more apples.

The most abundant Michigan apples are Red Delicious and Jonathon, but other popular varieties are Ida Red, Golden Delicious, McIntosh, Rome and Northern Spy.

A number of new varieties including the Empire — a cross between Red Delicious and McIntosh — are increasing in popularity, Drury said.

CIDER MILL visitors will find that cider averages $2.40 per gallon, three cents more than last year. Prices range from $1.50 to $3.50. A dozen doughnuts averages $1.30, one cent higher than last year, with prices from $1.80 to $4.

There are 110 mills listed on AAA Michigan's 1986 Cider Mill Guide — 10 more than a year ago. Many of those listed offer such family activities as hay wagon and train rides, apple butter making, arts and crafts fairs, pumpkin carving, animal petting zoos, music, craft demonstrations and baked goods. Pick-your-own apples and pumpkins are featured at some mills.

Most mills also allow visitors to view pressing operations and provide special tours and demonstrations. Visitors should call ahead for pressing dates and times, and a schedule of other activities.

Stilts dancer to entertain at festival

Noted Mocko Jumble dancer Willard Johnson from the Island of St. Croix will entertain at the Westland Center Oct. 31, Nov. 1 and Nov. 2 during a Holiday in St. Croix week-end exhibition.

Pay Lindqvist, district manager for the St. Croix division of tourism, will attend with hotel representatives to offer literature and stories on island lore. There will be an audio visual presentation and complimentary rum cookbooks at the St. Croix exhibit.

John will give several dancing performances daily. Mocko Jumble is the art of dancing on tall stilts. Mocko Jumble, the art of dancing on tall stilts, originated in West Africa. Literally, Mocko means "to see" and Jumble refers to "spirits." Mocko Jumble is thus the tall character on stilts who is able to see evil spirits approach an African village and chase them away with his dance.

A Positive Point About Breast Cancer.

Now we can see it before you can feel it. When it's no bigger than the dot on this page.

And when it's 90% curable. With the best chance of saving the breast.

The trick is catching it early. And that's exactly what a mammogram can do.

A mammogram is a simple x-ray that's simply the best news yet for detecting breast cancer. And saving lives.

If you're over 35, ask your doctor about mammography.
