Each week, the Farmington Hills Parks and Recreation Division will present a synopsis of upcoming activities in this column. For more information about division programs, call the office, 474-6115. To discuss Farmington Hills City Council agenda items, call the division newsline: 476-3838.

PLYMOUTH ICE SCULPTURE — This annual event in the city of Plymouth is waiting for you. The tour will leave Farmington Hills

City Hall at 11:30 a.m. and travel to the Hillside Inn for a lunch of stuffed, boneless breast of chicken with Marsala wine sauce, rice pilaf, bread basket and beverage. With the conclusion of lunch, you can observe the abundant and beautiful sculptures that have been carved from ice in downtown Plymouth. Fee is $14 per person and includes lunch and transportation. Registration deadline is Friday, Jan. 2.

RECREATION — Registration is now being accepted for gymnastics, ballet, jazz, preschool tumbling and tap classes. Classes will begin the week of Jan. 19 in Eagle and Gill elementary schools, East Middle School and Oakland Community College. Fee is $16 per person.

YOUTH BOWLING — In cooperation with Bel-Aire, Country, Drake and Nor-West Lanes a learn-to-bowl program for children in grades 3-5 will be offered. Individuals are taught the correct lane approach, ball delivery, timing and scoring. Classes run from 4-5:30 p.m.

beginning the week of Jan. 19. Fee is $15.

ICE SKATING LESSONS — Learn to skate or improve your skating techniques. Classes meet for 30 minutes once a week for six weeks beginning Tuesday, Jan. 6, at 7:30 and 8 p.m. for adults, and Saturday, Jan. 10, at 3:30 p.m. for children. Rental skates are available. All lessons will be at Beech Woods Arena, and class fee is $25.

CROSS COUNTRY SKI — You can join us as we cross country ski Heritage Park from 7-10 p.m. Friday, Jan. 16. No fee will be charged for this special event. Ski rental will be available, fee is $5. No prerequisites are required.

YOUTH BAND — Individuals presently in the 6th-8th grades are offered the opportunity to play in a concert band while acquainting themselves with contemporary musical literature. Lessons will be held from 4-5 p.m. Thursdays at Dunckel Middle School. All participants must furnish their own instruments. Classes run from Jan. 8 to March 19. Fee is $18.

RIDING LESSONS — Learning the basic riding skills is instrumental to the enjoyment of horses. This winter both Western and English riding lessons will be offered. Classes are one hour and meet once a week for eight weeks and begin the week of Jan. 5. Lessons will be held at Windshire Equestrian Academy in Milford. Participants must be 8 years of age or older. Fee is $55.
