Cartoons now shown on cable

Novi resident Dave Witt brings to Channel 12 a cartoon series of public domain classics.

These include family viewing to cheer many an hour sharing with your children: Koko the Clown, Betty Boop, Popeye, Oswald the Rabbit and Private Snafus (from Warner Brothers made for WW II).

Dave has narrated a little historical trivia of pictures and newscasts to enhance your enjoyment.

Dave Witt has been a Channel 12 television enthusiast as he attends Madonna College in communications. Several of his accomplishments have won awards. Dave emphasizes his appreciation of "Free Experience" as he stresses finding a job in today's world links the experience with the education.

Channel 12 thanks Dave for his quest for creative quality as he learns through our community television opportunities.
