

Pianist featured in pops concert

Pianist Rebecca Happel will be the guest of the Birmingham-Bloomfield Symphony Orchestra, Felix Resnick, conductor, in a salute to the "Great

Rebecca Happel

Music from the Movies," at 8 p.m. Friday, Jan. 16, at Birmingham Seaholm High School. All the music is from movies, past and present. Included will be Rossini's Overture to "The Barber of Seville" ("Pasta's Honor"), Prokofiev's Suite from "Lieutenant Kije," Wagner's "Ride of the Valkyries" ("Apocalypse Now"), and Williams' Suite from "Return of the Jedi." Happel will perform Addinsell's Warsaw Concerto and Vangelis' "Chariots of Fire" with the orchestra.

Happel made her debut with the BBSO in 1981. A graduate of the University of Michigan School of Music, she holds a doctorate in piano performance, having studied under world-renowned pianists Leon Fleisher, Gary Graffman and Gyorgy Sandor. She lives in Royal Oak and is associate director of public relations with Michigan Opera Theatre.

Tickets for this Friday Night Pops Concert are $9 for adults and $5 for students under 19. Visa and MasterCard orders are taken over the phone, 643-7288, by mail send a self-addressed envelope to the BBSO, 2352 Dorchester, Birmingham 46008, with a check made payable to the BBSO.

This concert is underwritten in part by Sommers, Schwartz, Silver & Schwartz. It is also supported by the Michigan Council for the Arts, the West Bloomfield and Birmingham community education councils and WQRS.

String Quartet playing Sunday

The New World String Quartet will give a concert at 10:30 a.m. Sunday at the Prudential Town Center of Southfield.

Tickets, which include reserved table seating and a light brunch at 10 a.m., are $5.50 per person. These are available at the City of Southfield Parks and Recreation Department, Cultural Arts Division, Evergreen between 10 and 11 Mile roads. Tickets for concert and coffee only at $3.50 are available in advance or at the door. For information, call 354-4717.

The New World String Quartet, which won the Neumberg Chamber Music Award in 1979, is presently Quartet in Residence at Harvard University. It is one of two groups performing at Harvard's 350th anniversary. The quartet has toured the United States, Alaska and Hawaii and has made nine recordings.
