

Sorority Notes Founder's Day Charter

Metropolitan Detroit Delta Zeta Alumnae will celebrate its Founder's Day at 1:30 p.m., Saturday, Oct. 24, at the First Presbyterian Church in Dearborn. Dearborn-Dowriver members will be hostesses for the day.

eligible for the Order of the Golden Rose.

Mrs. Garland was initiated into the Alpha Chapter of Delta Zeta where it was founded at Miami University in Oxford, Ohio.

Delta Zeta vice president Mrs. Douglas Myers and province collegiate director Mrs. Donald Massey of Livonia are in charge of preparations for the annual Founder's Day celebration.

Party Set By Singers

A charter party for the We-Way-Co (Western Wayne County) Chapter of the Sweet Adelines will be held at 8:30 p.m., Friday, Oct. 23, in Plymouth Junior High West, Sheldon Rd. and Ann Arbor Trail.

Guests of honor will be regent Margaret Norhouse and vice-regent Rosemary Clisdale. The director of the group is Gordon Limburg, who is also director of the award-winning Wayne Chapter of the SPSBSQA.

Officers of the new 22-member chapter are Carol Sanders of Detroit, president; Sally Schrader, vice president; Amy Holmquist, treasurer; Leatha Sanders, secretary; and Arlene Pasley, corresponding secretary.

The special program will include songs by three top quartets and by the Harmonica Kittens, a senior citizens' group.

The chapter meets every Wednesday evening at 8 p.m. in the music room of Plymouth Central High School, on Main St. All interested may attend.

OLS Is Scene Of Nuptial Mass

MRS. STANLEY LASKOWSKI
(Susan DeMatia)

A nuptial mass in Our Lady of Sorrows Catholic Church in Farmington recently united Susan DeMatia and Stanley Laskowski in marriage.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter DeMatia of Drake Road, Farmington. Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Laskowski of Tuck Road, Farmington, are parents of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Walter DeMatia, sister-in-law of the bride, was soloist for the Mass.

IVORY PEAU DE SOIE and re-embroidered slencen lace fashioned the bride's gown. Lace in the bodice, front panel and deep hem edging the chapel train was trimmed with seed pearls and crystals.

A half-hat of matching lace held her bouffant veil of imported silk illusion, and she carried a colonial bouquet of miniature white carnations, yellow sweetheart roses and white daisies.

Six bridal attendants wore yellow chiffon gowns and carried colonial bouquets of white and yellow daisies with avocado velvet ribbons.

Mrs. Terry McDowell, the bride's twin sister, was matron of honor, and the bridesmaids were Carolyn Duke, Leah Laskowski, sister of the bridegroom, Mary DeMatia, sister of the bride, and Karen DeMatia, niece of the bride. Another niece, Carolyn DeMatia, was junior bridesmaid.

RON BERGERON was best man and the ushers were Douglas and Norbert Laskowski, brothers of the bridegroom, Robert Urban and Daniel West. Thomas DeMatia, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

Mrs. DeMatia wore a mint green A-line peau de soie dress with a lace bodice. Mrs. Laskowski's gown was tangerine nixon.

The reception was held in Meadowbrook Country Club and the newlyweds honeymooned in the Pocono Mountains. They are living in Plymouth.

Both are graduates of Our Lady of Sorrows High School. The bride attended Barry College in Miami, Fla., for two years before transferring to Eastern Michigan University, where she and her husband both are seniors.

MRS. R.G. LeTOURNEAU

Texan Will Be Club's Speaker

The Texas "mother of the year" will be the guest speaker at the Christian Women's Club luncheon meeting Thursday, Oct. 29, in Lofy's, Ann Arbor Rd., Plymouth. The luncheon will begin at 12:30 p.m.

The speaker, Mrs. R.G. (Mom) LeTOURNEAU, is the widow of an internationally famous industrial inventor. She will tell how success enabled her family to give 90 per cent of their income to religious work and how they had trouble finding places to spend the 10 per cent left.

A mother of five, grandmother of 19 and great-grandmother of one, Mrs. LeTOURNEAU was chosen mother of the year for her work with young people.

Mrs. Sue Kapp, a soprano, will provide special music, and Mrs. Judy Bednar, home economist from Wayne State University, will talk. A nursery is provided for preschool children.

REYNE TERRY

Mrs. and Mrs. Thomas A. Terry of Forest Avenue, Plymouth, announce the engagement of their daughter, Reyne Francine, to Michael Craig Haeske, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Haeske of Albion, Mich. Both are graduates of Plymouth High School. The bride-to-be also attended Schoolcraft Community College and is employed at the Plymouth Veterinary Hospital. Her fiancé graduated from Radio Electronic Technician School and plans to attend SCC. He is employed as a technician by Montgomery Ward. They will be married Nov. 21.

EMU Students Wed In Aldersgate

Eastern Michigan students Deborah Cuffe and Patrick Dennis Nalley exchanged marriage vows Sept. 12 in an evening ceremony in Aldersgate Methodist Church.

The Rev. William Wagen and Father Robert MacIvor, S.M., officiated. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Peter T. Cuffe of Wormer Avenue, Redford Township, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter P. Nalley of Detroit.

GIVEN IN MARRIAGE by her father, the bride wore a white silk organza gown with stand-up collar, long sleeves and wide cuffs. Rows of applied daisies trimmed the dress and train. A wide organza bow held her illusion veil and her bouquet was of white carnations and babies' breath and green stephanotis.

Laura Cuffe, the bride's sister, was maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Mary Ellen Nalley, sister of the bridegroom, Rebecca Schutt of Frankenmuth and Robin Kuhlida.

Their sleeveless gowns of avocado chiffon over linen had flower-embroidered empire bodices and white satin sashes and collars and they carried green and white carnations and babies' breath.

THE BEST MAN was Thomas Gallas, and the ushers were Thomas Tristani, John Nalley, brother of the bridegroom, and Michael Cuffe, brother of the bride.

Both mothers wore street-length dresses. Mrs. Cuffe's is green chiffon and Mrs. Nalley's beige lace.

After a buffet supper reception in the Edward Cardinal Mooney K of C Hall in Redford Township, the couple left on a honeymoon trip to Cove Ha-
