

police/fire calls

Listed are some of the Farmington-area police and fire calls received during the past week:

WOMAN ROBBED
A 49-year-old woman was robbed of her purse outside her Farmington Hills house at 9:30 p.m. Jan. 24.

According to a Farmington Hills police report:
As the woman was getting out of her car after pulling into her driveway, a man ran up, brandished a gun and demanded her purse. He then ran off. Moments earlier, the woman saw a suspicious car standing near the intersection of Silwassee and Tuck.

CHIMNEY FIRE
A chimney fire caused about $100 in damage to a house on Parkhill Tuesday morning.

When firefighters arrived, they found fire from byproducts of wood that had burned in the fireplace. The fire was confined to the chimney, according to a Farmington Hills Fire Department report.

VANDALS STRIKE

A string of vandalism and car stereo thefts was reported Jan. 23-24 in Farmington Meadows and Farmington Oaks subdivisions, according to Farmington Department of Public Safety reports.
Three incidents on Larkspur and others on Birchwood, Robinwood and Flanders were reported.

Car stereos valued from $250-$900 were reported stolen. Damage ranging from $70-$250 was reported to windows of parked cars, according to the reports.

Woman is attacked

A 24-year-old woman — an employee of a downtown business — was sexually assaulted early Wednesday after exiting her car in a parking lot on the north side of Grand River, public safety officers said.

Gary Goss, deputy director of the Farmington Department of Public Safety, called the attack "particularly brutal."

The woman was jumped as she got out of her car about 5 a.m., then beaten and sexually assaulted, Goss said. As she ran west on Grand River toward a friend's house, she met a jogger who called police.

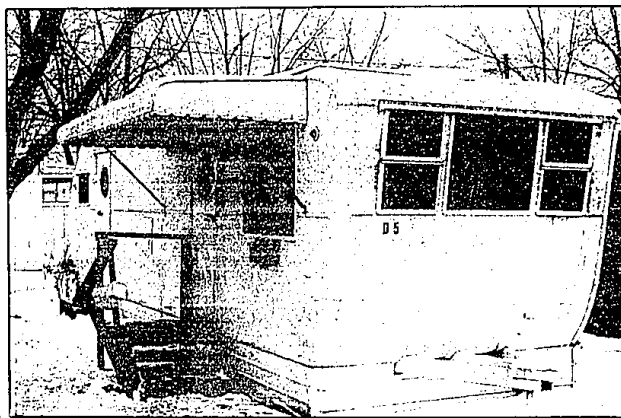

The woman was treated at Boteford General Hospital in Farmington Hills for a broken nose as well as cuts and bruises to her head and body, Goss said.

Police are investigating possible connections between the sexual assault and similar attacks in neighboring communities, Goss added.

Sought is a clean-shaven black man, about 25 years of age, 5-10 in height, with a slender to medium

On the mend

The 22-year-old Farmington Hills man pulled from his burning mobile home (above) at Fleming's Mobile Home Park last week was discharged from Boteford General Hospital Monday. He was treated for smoke inhalation and first- and second-degree burns to the upper chest and face. District Chief Bob Reboley of the Farmington Hills Fire Department and Sgt. Al Hawner and Officer Gil Kohls of the Farmington Hills Police Department rescued Patrick Thomas Bolda, who was semiconscious, at midnight Jan. 22.
