ibrary needs dependable volunteers

Volunteers give 8,000 hours to the albrary annually. Neither branch of the Farmington Community Library could run without their efforts.

Give some of yourself back to your community by volunteering at the library. The only real qualification we need is dependability.

Our volunteers take part in shelving books, sorting magazines and newspapers, typing and filling. Some spend their hours in the illierary for the Blind and Physically Handicapped shelving record and cassette. books.

Call for more information on volunteer work at either branch library.

Don't forget to use your library as a tax time resource. We're stocking selected forms and publications. We have several sets of the federal and state reproducible form packets. The library carries the Commerce Clearing House complete set of tax publications and forms.

In 1987, Pollard hopes to raise $33,000. Last year, the Y volunteers generated $30,357 which gave the YMCA staff the available resources to involve 1,644 individuals in various program activity. This year, the YMCA hopes to send 100 kids to camp, involve 1,400 boys and girls in youth sport leagues, subsidize 45 youth memberships and provide recreational activities for 100 handicapped adults, such as, swim lessons, fitness classes, bowling and a weekend of residential camping. Pollard believes "that the young people who participate in this program not only develop healthier bodies, but also build character and personal values to become more production human beings." The state of the s
