

club circuit

SINGLES SOCIAL CLUB, a new group formed by Farmington Community Center, meets for a cross-country moonlight ski party at 7 p.m. Friday in Heritage Park. Entrance to the park is on Farmington Road, between 10 and 11 Mile. Skiing is free. Rental for skis is $4. The group will return to the center for refreshments.

Inquiries are taken by calling the center, 477-8404.

MOONDUSTERS, a club for singles over the age of 30, meet for a dance party from 9 a.m. to 12:30 a.m. every Saturday in Livonia Activities Center, corner of Farmington Road and Five Mile.

Admission is $3.50 at the door, which includes dancing to a live band and refreshments.

DELTA OMICRON, Zeta Alpha Chapter, meets at 3 p.m. Saturday in the Southfield home of Jennifer Dixon for a program on music therapy. The lectures will be given by Dixon and Shirley Cole.

Dixon is a music therapist for Harper Hospital. Cole teaches music therapy in Institute of Music and Dance and is a gerontologist for Southfield Adult Day Care Center. Reservations are requested by calling Eileen Wagner at 542-1025.

DAUGHTERS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION, Quakertown Chapter, meets for a noon luncheon Tuesday, Feb. 17 in the Farmington Hills home of Mrs. Michael Davis.

Speaker for the afternoon is Elizabeth McGuire, a public safety officer with Pittsfield Township police department. Her talk is called "Crime Prevention: A Woman in Blue." McGuire is past treasurer of Michigan State DAR, a Michigan State "Outstanding Junior Member," past chapter regent of the Ypsilanti DAR, and past senior state president of Children of the American Revolution.

Members are observing American History Month. The display in Farmington Hills Branch Library commemorating the month was created by Quakertown member Mrs. John Lee.

BIRMINGHAM REPUBLICAN WOMEN'S CLUB invites guests to its luncheon meeting at 11:30 a.m. Tuesday, Feb. 17, in Birmingham Community House.

Speaker for the day is Martha Andrews, chairwoman for BASE (Businesses and Associations for a Strong Economy). She is an appointee to National Federation of Independent Business Association, is vice president for Women Business Owners and is a governor's appointee to the state Prison Board.

Charge for the luncheon is $7. Reservations are taken by Margaret O'Brien, 844-8728.

WAND (Women's Action for Nuclear Disarmament) meets at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 17, in Baldwin Public Library, corner of Bates and Merrill streets in Birmingham. The meeting is open to guests free.

Speakers for the evening are peace activists Sara Peterson, a social studies teacher, and Kate Warner, associate professor of urban planning at University of Michigan. The program is called "Beyond War: New Thinking for the Resolution of Conflicts."

Inquiries are taken by calling WAND, 851-0984.

FARMINGTON GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY meets at 7 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 17, in Farmington Branch Library, State and Liberty streets.

Speaker for the evening is Dave Johnson, an archivist. His talk is called "Records of Use to the Genealogist in Michigan State Archives." He will tell about the building, now under construction in Lansing, that will house the state archives, the state library and the state historical museum.

During an informal session knowledgeable members will assist those with questions. Helpful books will be available. Participants will also be able to get information on the Sesquicentennial Certificates that are being made available by the state for descendants of those pioneers who lived in Michigan prior to 1837, when it became a state.

The meeting is open the public free.

LALECHE LEAGUE, Farmington-Southfield Chapter, meets at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, Feb. 18, in the home of Theresa McAllister, 25342 Wykeshire, Farmington Hills. Session for the evening is "Baby Arrives: The Family and the Breastfed Baby."

The meeting is open to mothers interested in learning the art of breastfeeding their infants. Inquiries are taken by calling Laleche League's central phone, 399-6533.

CATHOLIC ALUMNI CLUB OF DETROIT invites single, Catholic college graduates to learn about the club at its next general meeting at 8 p.m. Wednesday, Feb. 18, in Dearborn Civic Center, Michigan at Greenfield.

LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS, West Bloomfield-Farmington Area Branch, meets at 11:30 a.m. Thursday, Feb. 19, in E.G. Nicks Restaurant, 6009 Maple, West Bloomfield.

FARMINGTON COMMUNITY CENTER MEN'S CLUB meets at noon Thursday, Feb. 19.

Speaker for the afternoon is William J. Dwyer, chief of police, Farmington Hills. He will show slides and give some crime statistics of the area.

Reservations, at $4 each, are necessary. Reservations must be made by Tuesday, Feb. 17, by calling the center, 477-4804. Men interested in playing cards may join the club members 9:30-11:30 a.m. at no charge.

Hand 'n Hand

Each year Hand 'n Hand, a group made up of Farmington Nursing Home residents, their families and the staff, send a gift to Children's Hospital of Michigan. This week their gift of a $200 check will be sent enclosed in a handmade Valentine. Bake sales and a continuous collection of refundable cans and bottles help make up the fund for the gift. Representing Hand 'n Hand contributors are (standing from left) Donna Lewis, a nurses aide; Ruth Ferrel, executive director of the nursing home; Denise Book, a member of the nursing staff; and Susan Harris from Children's Hospital. Seated are Eileen Kritzler and Carolyn Collins, both residents of the home.
