

Spartans eye 4th Schoolcraft title

By Chris McCosky
staff writer

Lee Cagle and his Livonia Stevenson volleyball team have won the Schoolcraft Invitational championship the last three years. That's unprecedented in the history of the tournament.

"You might think winning it that many times would make the Spartans complacent this year."

"I told the girls that if we could win it a fourth straight time, that record may never be matched," Cagle said. "We have a chance to do something very special."

IT WON'T be easy. Walled Lake Western (19-2), Walled Lake Central (18-3), Garden City (30-6), Redford Bishop Burgess (18-7) and Livonia Ladywood (22-6) will be among the 30 teams looking to dethrone the Spartans. Fenton and Dearborn, as well as North Farmington and Farmington Harrison, are dark horse entries who have the ability to wind up in the finals.

"Hey, on any given day teams can just play out of their minds," Cagle said. "We're heading into the last part of the season and every team has improved. If we come in flat, we could get beat."

Tournament director Tom Teeters, successful women's coach at Schoolcraft and in his first year at Ladywood, likes Stevenson's chances.

"Give them No. 1," Teeters said. "They always have had the stars. In tournaments you need that one player to go to when it counts. You have to have that player or a real well-rounded team that passes well."

Stevenson (23-4 on the season) appears to have both areas covered.

WHAT: The Schoolcraft College High School Volleyball Tournament

WHERE: Schoolcraft College, Haggerty Road between Six Mile and Seven Mile roads.

WHEN: Saturday, Feb. 14. Pool play begins at 8:45 a.m. Quarterfinal rounds at 4 p.m. and finals at 7 p.m.

WHO: 82 teams, 81 students.

WHY: 30 teams divided into six pools: Pool I: Garden City, North Farmington, Livonia Franklin, Livonia Central, Redford Union, Dearborn.

Pool II: Wayne Memorial, Livonia Churchill, Detroit Henry Ford, Farmington Harrison, Detroit Benedictine.

Pool III: Defending champion Livonia Stevenson, Grand Blanc, Rochester Adams, Redford Union, Dearborn.

Pool IV: Walled Lake Western, Redford Bishop Burgess, Farmington Harrison, Lansing Eastern, Novi.

Pool V: Walled Lake Central, Fenton, Dearborn Heights, Dearborn, South Lyon, Northville.

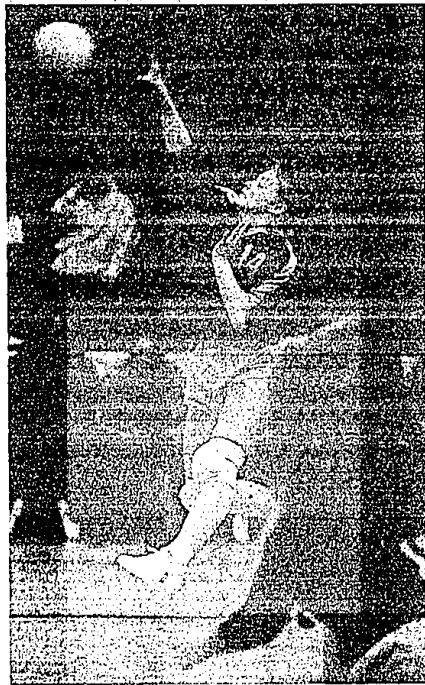

Pool VI: Dearborn, Flint Atherton, Livonia Ladywood, Plymouth Canton, Farmington.

Kristine Bailey and Sue Zatorski give the Spartans a double dose of "that one player" Teeters was talking about. Also, the talents of Amy Anderson, Laura Brown, Jenny Slawski, Missy Cutlip and Rocky Clor provide Stevenson with a well-rounded supporting cast.

BUT CAGLE hasn't cleared a space in his trophy case just yet.

"You can't go into a tournament like this thinking you are No. 1," he said. "You have to think you are one of five or six who can possibly win it. Then you take it one step at a time after that."

Pool play will begin at 8:45 a.m. Teeters expects the finals to get underway at approximately 7 p.m.
