present next Wednesday at 8 p.m. Hear America Singing. His musical narrative begins with 1775 and traces our country's history up to the present day both musically and humorously. Fee for the evening's fare is $3.

MIKE WHORF

Mike Whorf will bring his musical history of America to the Center Nov. 4, and for Farmington, it will be an "adventure in sound." This is the description of Mike's WJR program, Kaleidoscope, and it applies to the entertainment he will

THE FIFTY PLUS Club will see a colored film of Nova Scotia on Nov. 3, at 1 p.m. Dr. Bob Douglas will address the group on Nov. 10 about "The Medical Aspects of Environmental Pollution."

On the morning of Nov. 4, the Center will honor its volunteer workers with a coffee hour.

On Friday, Nov. 6, the evening bridge club will hold its first meeting. All interested couples are urged to attend and WEDNESDAY, Nov. 11, the second benefit bridge luncheon is coming up. Play continues from 10 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. with a break for luncheon.

For the October meeting, Mrs. Ed LaVarey and Mrs. George Shelmar served a delicious Maurice salad with rolls coffee and dessert.

Weight watchers need only pass a discreet word to the cooks, and they will help to keep faith with diet regulations.

Reservations must be in by the previous Monday at 474-6872 and $3 covers luncheon and $2 covers coffee and dessert. Speaking of weight watchers, their numbers continue to grow weekly. Meetings begin on Tuesdays at 10 a.m., rain or shine. Anyone with 10 or more pounds to shed can find warm and friendly moral support as well as practical knowhow among this group.

Camera fans from 12 to 80 are cordially invited to look in on a fledgling organization which meets on Herbert Shapiro at 8 p.m. on the second Tuesday of each month.

And by all means jot down your date to meet Lynn Brooks-Finn when she brings her Creative Dramatics Workshop to the Center on Nov. 13. This is an audience participation event greeted with much acclaim all across the country wherever it has been presented.

Harrison Tips Lakers For No. 3

For a "Baby" Farmington Harrison isn't doing badly in football.

The newest of the Farmington schools, fielding its first team and one without any seniors...has played six games and won three.

Add the fact that most of Harrison rivals have included seniors and one can see what a bright future is in store for Harrison once the team gets 12th graders.

HARRISON REACHED the 500 point for the season by downing Walled Lake Western, 21-6, in a Western Six League game.

Tom Enkert intercepted a pass and ran 45 yards for a touchdown to get Harrison off on the right foot in the second period. A two-point conversion on a pass from Rick Hughes to Young made it 8-0 for Harrison.

The defense also figured in the second Harrison TD. After a western fumble, Harrison came up with the ball and Hughes finally shoved it over for the touchdown on a quarterback sneak.

The defense also accounted for the third Harrison score when Dennis Thibodeau picked up a fumble and ran it back for 20 yards to pay land.

Harrison earned 203 yards rushing during the game, but didn't make a yard in the air. Thibodeau ran for 88 yards in 22 carries while Dave Manos carried 24 times for 86 yards.

Farmington Socially Speaking

By KATHY ZISKA GR. 4-7261

Several Farmingtonites are recuperating from their vacations abroad. The first Channel 56 charter flight to Europe included Mrs. Lenore Frontczak of Dundalk and her mother, Mrs. Ruth Bowman of Johnstown, Pa. It was Mrs. Bowman's first trip abroad.

Mrs. Ann Tufel of Chesterbrook was in the group. She toured London for a couple of days and then took in the side trips of Scotland, Belgium and Holland.

WHILE MRS. PAULINE Van Camp, of Belfast, after a short visit of London, took the direction of Bremen, Germany where she visited Mrs. Gerda Hoffman and her son Bernie.

Mrs. Hoffman is my daughter's German mother, says Mrs. Van Camp. Her daughter, Mrs. Gretchen Hall, who is now married and lives in Syracuse, stayed with the Hoffman family during her stay in Germany with the American Field Service in 1957.

Mr. and Mrs. George Nestell of Locust Drive, also in the group, rented a car and toured the English countryside. It would be reasonable to ask Hope Naisloff if they spent much time in the theater since she is with the Farmington Players and did such a magnificent job of the leading role in "The Prime of Miss Jean Brodie."

The only play they attended was Noel Coward's "Blythe Spirit." It brought back some memories to Hope for she had the role of Madam Arcati in the play when it was staged by the Farmington Players several years ago.

MRS. EVELYN KAUFFMAN of Farmington Road and her niece, Mary Eleanor Shriner of Riviera Beach, Fla., spent several days together at the Downey residence on Farmington Road and then took off for the Houghton Lake area for the weekend to visit a mutual cousin, Howe Undine.

On Sunday, Nov. 3 at 2 p.m., Farmingtons Kendallarks will perform on a portable stage at the Ted Twelve Hall. It will be approximately a half hour program, under the direction of William Feucht.

Their songs, accompanied by Mr. Stafford Preston on the piano, will consist of show tunes, opening with "Hey, Look Me Over" and closing with the song, "Battle Hymn of the Republic." They would be happy to see you there.

Recently attending the three-day Federated Garden Clubs Flower Show Judges' Symposium in the Kellogg Center was Betty Brown of Mayfield. Farmingtonites attending the Symposium for one day were Mrs. Arthur Drachshel and Mrs. David McFeggan. The requirement of the course was that you had to be a certified Flower Show Judge.
