

police/fire calls

Listed are some of the Farmington-area police and fire calls received during the past week:

BOY KILLED
A 15-month-old boy was killed when a car backed over him in the parking lot at the Topp's Motel, 2874 Grand River, at 6:15 p.m. April 25.
Daniel T. Sawulski of Livonia was pronounced dead at 7 p.m. at Royal General Hospital, said Sgt. Ray Cranston of the Farmington Hills Police Department/Traffic Section.
The boy was struck when he wandered from a patio, where his mother had gathered with friends, into the path of a car backing away from a cabin. The car then left the motel. The driver apparently didn't see the boy, Cranston said.

The child was discovered lying in the lot soon after. The Oakland County Prosecutor's Office will determine whether warrants will be issued against the 28-year-old Redford Township driver, Cranston said.

FELONY WARRANT
Farmington Hills and Southfield officers assisted Detroit officers in arresting a 30-year-old man wanted for assault with intent to commit murder.

Lt. Jack Brown and Officer John Markey of the Farmington Hills Police Department assisted in the man's arrest at 7:45 p.m. April 27 at a house on Inkster near Eight Mile. The man was turned over to the Detroit Police Department, according to a Farmington Hills police report.

LARCENY BY TRICK
An elderly couple was tricked out of $20 by a man posing as a utility company employee at noon April 25, police said.

According to a Farmington Hills police report:
The Halsted Road couple let in a man thought to be in his late 30s who said they had overpaid their electric bill. He gave them a $20 bill and asked for $10 back. But when the woman asked for identification, he couldn't produce any. She then said he could keep the money, but told him to leave or she'd call the police. He left in a blue car in which another man was waiting.

BOY STRUCK
A 7-year-old Redford boy was struck in the head with a marble in the parking lot at Silver Dairy, 32323 Grand River, April 26. It is thought the marble came from a slingshot. The marble, which hit the boy in the back of the head, struck his grandfather's car first, so the boy "did not receive the full impact," according to a Farmington Department of Public Safety report.
Other marbles were found in the area.
The boy reported a swelling to the head, but no further injury.

WINDOW SHATTERED
Damage was estimated at $200 when the rear window of a car parked on Orchard Lake Road was shattered with a gunshot shortly after 10 p.m. April 28.
