VanSickles Make Home In Northville

Northville is the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth VanSickle following their recent marriage in the Salem Bible Church.

The bride is the former Linda Bennett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Bennett of Braden Road, Plymouth. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph VanSickle of Rogers Street, Northville, are the bridegroom's parents.

For the candlelight, double-ring ceremony, the bride chose a floor-length gown of white lace over satin with fitted waist, long sleeves and long train, sequins trimmed the ruffles on the full skirt.

SERVING as matron of honor for her sister, Mrs. Gail Miller wore a light blue floor-length chiffon gown with crystal bead trim.

In similar gowns were the bridesmaids, Susan and Patricia VanSickle, sisters of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Brenda Priest and Donna Doolin.

The bride's niece, Carmen Miller, was flower girl and also wore light blue chiffon. Her nephew, Ronald Miller, was ring-bearer.

Assisting the bridegroom were the bride's brother, Gerald Bennett, as best man, and Ronald Miller, James Tanner, Steve Smith and Steve Mickalack as ushers.

THE BRIDE'S MOTHER had a royal blue lace gown and the bridegroom's mother was in pink silk.

After a reception for 200 guests in the VFW Hall at South Lyon, the couple traveled in northern Michigan.

Both are graduates of Northville High School. The new Mrs. VanSickle also graduated from Plymouth Beauty College and is employed at the London Room in Plymouth. Her husband served in Vietnam with the U.S. Army and is employed in the Chevrolet Spring & Bumper plant in Livonia.

MRS. BRADFORD JAY CRAWFORD
(Cheryl Ann Jergovich)

Newlyweds Home In Melvindale

Mr. and Mrs. Bradford Jay Crawford are making their home in Melvindale following their recent marriage in St. Clement Catholic Church in Dearborn.

The bride is the former Cheryl Ann Jergovich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Jergovich of Dearborn. Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Crawford of Minton Avenue, Livonia, are parents of the bridegroom.

The Rev. Gerard S. Brennan officiated for the double-ring ceremony.

GIVEN IN MARRIAGE by her father, the bride wore a Victorian gown designed by Friscilla of Boston. The alien-con lace bodice featured a scoop neckline and puffed sleeves and the satin skirt swept into a chapel train. A lace cap held the bride's full veil, and she carried a cascade of white spider mums and yellow roses.

The bride's sister, Mrs. Marlene Wojtowicz, was matron of honor. She wore an A-line gown with maize striped silk organza bodice and moss green skirt and carried a Victorian bouquet of yellow mums and baby's breath.

The bridesmaids were Brenda Crawford, sister of the bridegroom, Nancy Jergovich, sister of the bride, Joyce Waytes and DeMarla DeMember. They wore similar gowns with bodices in a mortar shade and carried yellow mums and baby's breath. All wore moss green camelot caps.

Flower girl Diane Traglin wore a miniature version of the bridesmaids' gowns.

Sam LaRocca of Mt. Clemens was best man, and the ushers were Gregory Wright of Mt. Clemens, John Jergovich, brother of the bride, Richard Campbell of Detroit, James Wojtowicz of Dearborn, and Gregory Nicora of Dearborn.

MRS. JERGOVICH chose a celery silk and wool worsted dress with pearl trim for the occasion, and Mrs. Crawford was in paraffin pink silk.

The couple greeted 425 guests in a reception in Sokol Hall, Dearborn, before leaving for a Bermuda honeymoon.

The bride, a graduate of Fordson High School, is attending Henry Ford Community College and working as a Ford Motor Co. secretary. The bridegroom graduated from Franklin High School and attended Detroit Business Institute. He is an apprentice electrician.

Martha Jordan Married

Martha Jordan became the bride of Frederick D. Skellenger in a recent ceremony in the Riverside Church of God, Livonia, with the Rev. Dale Lehman of Muncie, Ind., officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen M. Jordan of Hartough Avenue, Plymouth. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Skellenger of Northville are parents of the bridegroom.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore white bridal satin with lace overlay and lace sleeves. Her flowers were white mums and sweetheart roses, and she carried a lace handkerchief that had been carried by the bridegroom's mother and grandmother.

Mrs. Jordan wore a satin and lace gown, and Mrs. Skellenger was in violet satin.

THE RECEPTION was held in the VFW hall in Plymouth, and the couple went to Niagara Falls for the honeymoon. They are living in Milford.

The new Mrs. Skellenger is a Plymouth High graduate and her husband graduated from Northville High School. Both graduated from Schoolcraft Community College.

Guess who I woke up with this morning?

Frank Sinatra
At exactly 8:05 A.M. Which is when my clock-radio goes off every morning. Good, honest music . . . it's such a delightfully refreshing way to wake up every morning. Instead of a D. J. pummeling away at you. Tomorrow I'm hoping for Burt Bacharach. I bet he's great in the morning too.
