St. Mary's Is Scene Of Wedding

A rainbow of color surrounded Rosalie Woods as she became the bride of Dennis Chauve in a nuptial mass in St. Mary's Catholic Church in Wayne on Aug. 9.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Woods, of Westland, was preceded to the altar by five attendants in pastel gowns and carrying gladioli to match their dresses.

Rice paper silk and lace fashioned the bridal gown. Lace formed the bodice and sleeves and accented the detachable train. The bride's fingertip illusion veil covered her cascading curls, and she carried gladioli and placed a white rose on the altar of the Blessed Mother.

DELLA WOODS, as maid of honor for her sister, wore an A-line satin gown with chiffon sleeves and lace roses at the midriff.

Other attendants, in similar gowns, were Marilyn Woods, to Miss Mrs. Robert Woods, in lavender, Crista Woods, in pink, and Jeanine Chauve, in yellow.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Chauve, of Livonia, was assisted by his brother, Kenneth, as best man. The ushers were Hank Chmiel, Robert Woods, James Strelecki and Larry Damerall.

FOR HER daughter's wedding, Mrs. Woods chose a dress of aqua chiffon with sequin accents and a corsage of yellow roses. Mrs. Chauve wore an apricot sheath with matching jacket. Her corsage was white orchids.

The reception followed the ceremony at the Odellow's Hall in Westland. After a honeymoon in the western states, the couple will live in Plymouth.

Pelkeys Are Wed In Livonia Service

Diane Lynn Frysinger and Jerald Linn Pelkey were united in marriage in a candlelight service Aug. 31 in the Newburg Methodist Church, Livonia, The Rev. Paul Green officiated.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Frysinger, of Livonia, and Mr. Ray Pelkey, of Westland.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a bouffant tiered gown with a sweetheart neckline, lace bodice and wrist-point sleeves. A shoulder-length veil was attached to her headpiece of seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of orchids and carnations.

KATHY FRYSSINGER, the bride's sister, served as her maid of honor. She wore an A-line apricot dress with a flowing back panel secured by an apricot cabbage rose. Another rose held her matching veil, and she carried yellow and white mums with tea roses matching her dress.

Grandmother Designs Gown Of Bride

Wearing a gown and veil designed and made by her grandmother, Mrs. A.K. Brocklehurst, Janis Elaine Larkin was married to Terry Michael Cosgrove on Aug. 17.

The candlelight service was conducted by the Rev. Lewis Brown Jr., in the First United Presbyterian Church of Plymouth.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Larkin, of Plymouth, are the parents of the bride, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Cosgrove, formerly of Plymouth and now living in Cincinnati.

BOTH PARENTS gave the bride in marriage.

Alencon lace and silk organza fashioned the bridal gown which featured a tunnel neckline, short sleeves and seed pearl embroidery. Lace formed the empire bodice and was applied on the chapel-length train.

The bride wore a fingertip veil of silk tulle attached to a headpiece of lace and seed pearls, and carried a semicascade of white carnations and roses centered with pink tea roses.

Jane Kay Blunk was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Eileen Dinsmore, Evi Flynn, and Beth Ann Larkin, the bride's sister.
