

St. Maurice Is Scene Of Rites

MRS. ROBERT PROCTOR IDESON
(Lynda Pearl Shier)

St. Maurice Catholic Church in Livonia was the setting for the wedding of Lynda Pearl Shier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hyman Shier of Stamford Avenue, Livonia, and Robert Proctor Iddon, son of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Scott Iddon II of Ann Arbor.

The Rev. Thomas J. Cain officiated for the double-ring evening nuptials.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown with lace applique on bodice, sleeves and chapel train. A jeweled flower headpiece held her triple-tier veil, and she carried a colonial bouquet of red and white roses with a white orchid in the center.

PATTI SHIER was her sister's maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Martha Iddon, sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. Scott Iddon of Lansing and Mrs. James Lakin, Mrs. John Dorr and Mrs. Terrence Cavanaugh, all of Ann Arbor. They wore red velvet empire gowns with white lace trim and carried colonial bouquets of red sweetheart roses and white carnations.

John Iddon was best man for his brother. The bridegroom's men were another brother, Scott Iddon, John Dorr, Phillip Dito, Alexander Gotz and David Swartz.

The bride's mother chose a mint green silk gown with matching stole and Mrs. Iddon's gown was Nile green and featured a jeweled neckline and cuffs.

THE RECEPTION was held in the candlelit ballroom of the Dearborn Inn. Among the wedding guests were Mrs. Pearl O'Connor of Westland, grandmother of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Proctor Sr. of Detroit, grandparents of the bridegroom.

After a honeymoon at Frenchman's Cove, Jamaica, the couple will live in Ann Arbor. The new Mrs. Iddon is a registered nurse employed at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital and her husband is a senior at Eastern Michigan University, majoring in chemistry.

MRS. CHARLES GLASSMIRE
(Nancy Heiss)

Wed At St. Paul's

Stevenson High School graduates Nancy Lynne Heiss and Charles Robert Glassmire were married in a double-ring ceremony Saturday, Oct. 10, in St. Paul Presbyterian Church, Livonia.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Heiss, Jr. and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Glassmire. All are Livonia residents.

The Rev. Carl A. Gunderson officiated at the ceremony, assisted by the Rev. William F. Whiteledge.

THE BRIDE, given in marriage by her father, wore an ivory satin fall gown with "peau d'ange" lace beaded and banded to elch waist, bodice, sleeves and hem. Her headpiece was a beaded Juliet cap with an elbow-length veil.

Beverly Kellner of Broadview Heights, Ohio, was maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Marysue Fitzgerald, Kathleen Moore and Mr. Paul LaBo.

All the attendants wore cranberry gowns with ivory lace at the necklines and on the bodices, the long sleeves and the hems. They carried bouquets of dried flower arrangements as did the bride, in keeping with the Victorian theme of the wedding.

GALE LEGGETT of Plymouth was best man. The ushers were Martin Heiss III, the bride's brother; Michael Clink and Dale Fredenburg.

A reception was held in the Kingsley Inn, Bloomfield Hills. The couple will reside in Plymouth on their return from a wedding trip.

Trip To Acapulco Follows Wedding

Wearing a wedding gown she made herself, Shirley Jeanne Cotney became the bride of Donley E. Glenn at a candle-light service in Ford Memorial United Methodist Church, Detroit, Sept. 26. The Rev. Jack Fulcher officiated.

Mr. and Mrs. James Cotney of Westland are the parents of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Glenn Jr. of Farmington are the bridegroom's parents.

THE BRIDE'S GOWN was styled in an A-line in white moire with an empire waist trimmed with Venetian lace. The long sleeves were of silk organza caught in triple puffs with Venetian lace. Her cathedral veil was attached to a headpiece of the same lace. She carried white roses and gardenias.

BEST MAN was Thomas Glenn, brother of the bridegroom. The ushers were Dick Clark, Tim Quaine and Don Catless.

Following a reception in the Gourmet House, the new-

Mrs. Michael Herr
(Nancy Leulding)

Nuptials Carry Out Family Tradition

A family tradition was carried out in the recent Plymouth wedding of Nancy Ellen Leulding, daughter of Mrs. Earl Leulding of Plymouth and the late Mrs. Leulding, and Michael Richard Herr, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Herr of Adrian.

Mrs. Leulding escorted her daughter down the aisle of St. Kenneth Catholic Church and Mr. and Mrs. Herr escorted their son. Meeting at the altar, the parents gave the bride and bridegroom in marriage.

The bride designed and made a gown of silk organza over peau de soie. Lace inserts and tiny satin and pearl bows trimmed the bodice, stand-up collar and cuffs for the full sleeves, and wide lace bordered the cathedral length veil. The bride's bouquet was of white roses and a white orchid.

FOUR ATTENDANTS wore gowns of pastel chiffon over a

Hawaiian print and carried arm bouquets of matching gladioli.

Linda Wilson, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Dee Ann Leulding of Belleville and the bridegroom's sisters, Annette and Mary Herr of Adrian.

Edwin Herr was best man for his brother. The ushers were Russell Thomas of Owosso, John Schultz of Oxford and Joe Hoffer of Watertown, Wis.

MRS. LEULDING wore a gown of beige lace over coral, and Mrs. Herr's dress and coat ensemble was mint green.

A buffet dinner and reception in the church hall followed the ceremony.

The newlyweds are living in East Lansing, where both are seniors at Michigan State University. They will graduate in June, and new Mrs. Herr in music therapy and her husband in veterinary medicine.

Julianne Penland wore her grandmother's 52-year-old Belgian lace veil when she exchanged marriage vows with Roy Alford Jr. in St. John's Episcopal Church of Plymouth.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack D. Penland of Robinson Drive, Plymouth, and the bridegroom is the son of Roy Alford Sr. of Bradner Road, Plymouth, and the late Margaret Alford.

The Rev. Robert S. Shank Jr. heard the couple's vows.

GIVEN IN MARRIAGE by her father, the bride wore a white crepe Victorian gown with venise lace trimming the Betha collar and bishop sleeves. A coronet of satin leaves and sweetheart roses held the heirloom veil, and the bride carried roses, stephanotis and ivy on a white prayer book.

Diane Simmer of Plymouth was maid of honor and Ann Adams, also of Plymouth, was bridesmaid.

Both wore fern green chiffon Victorian gowns with venise lace trimming cuffs and bodices. Their headpieces were green satin leaves and velvet grapes, and they carried cascades of pale-green mums, grapes and ivy.

RONALD BOYNE of Plymouth was best man and the ushers were Robert Penland of Plymouth, Raymond Minthorn of Livonia and Thomas Walters of Farmington.

MRS. ROY ALFORD JR.
(Julianne Penland)

After a reception for 125 in the Idyl Wild Golf Club, the couple left for a honeymoon in the Smoky Mountains.

The new Mrs. Alford is a 1969 graduate of Plymouth High School and employed by a Michigan Bell Telephone Co. Her husband graduated from Plymouth High in 1964 and served in Vietnam. He now is a student at Wayne State University. They are living in Plymouth.

Newlyweds Have Trip To Island

In an evening ceremony in Our Lady of Victory Church, Northville, Anna DeSates Fullagar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Fullagar of Sherwood Street, Livonia, became the bride of Aung Myint. The bridegroom is from Rangoon, Burma.

The Rev. John Wittstock officiated.

The bride wore a floor-length gown of white crepe in an empire style with Irish lace trim. Seed pearls, decorated the shoulder-length veil. She carried white roses.

Sharon Taylor wore a floor-length pink gown, also in an empire style, as the bride's only attendant.

Pat Fagan was the best man.

Mrs. Fullagar wore a powder blue double pleated chiffon gown.

A reception for 200 guests was held in Roma Hall, and the couple left for a wedding trip to Mackinac Island.

The bride attended Bentley High School and Wayne State University, and the bridegroom received an MA degree from Michigan State University. They will live in Westland.
