Musicians on Mackinac

Members of Fair Lane Youth Chamber Music Guild are on Mackinac Island this week for performances in Mackinac Hotel, the Grand Hotel, St. Ann Catholic Church and Trinity Episcopal Church.

Among the musicians participating are Alison Frontier, Amy Frontier and Lee Anne Richardson of Farmington and Lara Spols of Farmington Hills.

People wishing more information about the guild are invited to contact Jerome Wilczynski, the guild president, at 471-5760.

All aboard the Coe Rail

Reservations are being taken for a ride aboard the Coe Rail. The train leaves at 12:30 p.m. Sunday, June 28, from the Walled Lake depot. Passengers will learn the history of the railroad, the area's wild life, plant life and the wet lands as they travel the nine-mile trip.

Reservations are $5 for adults and $4 for children, at the Farmington Community Center, 24705 Farmington Road.

Troop has new Eagle Scout

Eric J. Cole took his Eagle Scout award during a Court of Honor in Nardin Park Methodist Church, presented by James Miller, scoutmaster for Troop 389. His escort for the ceremony was Eagle Scout Tom Ligenz. The Eagle charge was presented by Dewey Burton.

Cole entered scouting as a cub and joined Troop 389 in the fall of 1980, where he has served as quartermaster, assistant senior patrol leader, patrol leader, assistant senior patrol leader, senior patrol leader, and instructor. He is now the junior assistant scout leader.

During his scouting career he was selected to the Order of the Arrow and served as a member of the Governor's Honor Guard at Mackinac Island. He has hiked the Wright Memorial Trail, Potawatomi Trail and Chief Pontiac Trail.

He holds the Soar, Baden Powell, World Scout Crest and Recruiter awards.

For his community service project, a requisite for the Eagle rank, Cole did some landscaping and completely refurbished all of the equipment for Hinman Memorial Playground on the grounds of Nardin Park Church.

Cole graduated this spring from Harrison High School, where he excelled in math and science. He was a member of the National Honor Society, a member of the school's track team and played drums for the school's marching band.

He was employed for a long while with Plaza Veterinary Hospital, and more recently with Frank's Nursery. He will enter Michigan State University this fall.

Cole is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. James Cole of Farmington Hills. He has three brothers and one sister. His hobbies are downhill skiing, water skiing, computers, reading and travel.

Assisted Living at its Finest...

- Could you or your loved one benefit from support and encouragement with dressing and bathing?
- It is important to you that medications be carefully supervised 24 hours each day?
- Are you or your loved one eligible for the nursing home alternative?
- Do you know someone who needs assistance but still enjoys an active stimulating environment?

Surrounded by woods and in harmony with nature, our home is very private, yet in the middle of Livonia, only minutes from shopping, doctors and cultural activities.

Our home is not very large, therefore occupancy is limited and priority will be given to eligible applicants who respond early.

A non-smoking environment is enjoyed throughout the facility.
