

Hockey great given special treat

Three of hockey great Gordie Howe's four children will present their dad with a special Father's Day greeting when WDIV airs the fourth annual "Salute to Excellence" special Saturday, June 20, at 9:30 p.m.

Cathy Roskam of Lake Orion, Murray Howe of Farmington Hills and Marty Howe of Glastonbury, Conn., joined national and local celebrities honoring Gordie Howe at the benefit, which WDIV taped in Detroit May 21. Howe's other son, Mark, a Philadelphia Flyers player, was not present due to the NHL playoffs. Howe is corporate spokesman for Farmington Hills-based Oliver's Pizza.

Hosted by Dick Purtan, the 90-minute television special highlights great moments in Red Wings history, while benefiting Children's Hospital of Michigan in the Detroit Medical Center.

Other salutes featured in the television special include Susan Rutan, Roxanne Melman on ABC's "L.A. Law," Red Wings "Coach of the Year" Jacques Demers; Red Wings Hall of Famer Ted Lindsay; Gil Hill, star of "Beverly Hills Cop" and "Beverly Hills Cop II"; former Red Wings star Bill Gadsby; former Montreal Canadiens star Bernie "Boom Boom" Geoffrion; and Channel 4's Margie Reedy.

Reagan is losing face — Broomfield

AP — U.S. Rep. William Broomfield, R-Birmingham, says the Iran-contra scandal could sharply limit President Reagan's accomplishments during his final 18 months in office even though the president hasn't been linked directly to wrongdoing.

"The credibility of the president has been damaged and that was obvious last week in Venice," Broomfield said, referring to the economic summit.

Broomfield, the only Michigan member of the joint House-Senate committee investigating the alleged diversion of arm sales proceeds to contra rebels in Nicaragua, said the hearings that recessed last week could create a stalemate between the president and Congress.

"It's taken six months to get where we are now," he said of the hearings that resume June 23. "There are major witnesses still in the wings, and we may be facing two to three months more. And that's regrettable. The cloud still hangs over the administration."

Broomfield, whose district includes the Farmington area, also said Congress is partially to blame for the contra-aid scandal because of its inconsistent policy toward Nicaragua.
