Mutual aid:

By Bob Sklar staff writer

MAGINE TRYING to work out differences in tactics and equipment while battling a house fire.

Those differences provided a backdrop for a joint fire department training exercise June 9 in Farming equipment problems would arise. So we talked about them ahead of time, then watched to see how people re-acted to them," said Lt. Thomas Shurtleff, training officer for the ton Hills. The Michigan Fire Chiefs Association and the Farmington Hills Fire Department hosted the 3-hour session. "We knew certain procedural and Farmington Hills Fire Department. "Everybody worked well together. There were no major glitches." Firefighters from West Bloom-field, Livonia and Farmington Hills shared the roles of first responder and backup departments during the three separate fires. Training took place at an old formhouse on 12 Mile near Halsted. Troy-based Copper Creek, donated the furnished structure.

INVITATIONS WERE sent to Gov. Blanchard and each state lawmaker. None could attend but Blanchard sent a representative. Sgt. Gary Kurt of the Michigan State Po-lice Fire Marsha's Division. The hosts hoped to generate sup-analysis of the French press and techniques for using and applying the French newspaper in the class-room. The grant provides the teachers with observation of Paris newspaper production and interviews with French journalists.

port for legislative bills that would mandate minimum training stand-ards for all new firefighters, full-time or part-time, effective in 1988. A stativelide coalition of fire chiefs, inspectors, instructors and fire-fighters support the measures. "We wanted to get everybody to gether so they had some common knowledge about training before lob-bying for the bills began," Shurtleff said. From a mutual ald perspective,

Firefighters team up to zero in on training

Sid. From a mutual aid perspective, every department arriving at a fire should have a minimum level of cer-tifiable experience. "We had hoped to show that with standardized train-ing, different departments could function together, no matter what size the departments were," Shuri-leff said.

(F)3A

Farmington Hills Fire Chief Richard Marinucci helps Lt. Gregory Kirt, Michigan State Police fire marshal, don protective clothing before entering the burning house during the training

West Bloomfield firefighter Randy Callahan (left, crouching) observes the progress of the training burn with Lt. Tom Shuri-leff, Farmington Hills Fire Department training officer. Hills fire technician specialist Paul Cusac is shown walking toward the camera.

14 A West Bloomfield firefighter in full protective clothing deploys a hose from the back of a truck before entering the house to put out the fire.

short takes

If you recently opened a shop, captured an award, earned a pro-motion or are planning a new wenture or project — and there's a Farmington-area business an-gle – we'd like to hear from you so we can share your news item with oher Farmington Observer readers. Send itens to: Short takes, Farmington Observer, 3203 Grand River, Farmington 48024.

SHE'S PROMOTED

• NEW ASSISTANT Larry Rusiewicz of Farmington Hills has joined Oakwood Health Services Corp., Dearborn, as assist-ant administrator for construction

ant administrator for construction services. His responsibilities include coordi-nating all Oakwood Health Services' construction projects, including Oak-wood Heapital majorencovation and construction project. Before joining Oakwood, Ru-siewicz managed facilities planning with CIGNA Health Plan. He also spent 15 years in construction and death facilities planning and devel-opment with the U.S. Army Medical Command in Europe and the United States.

States. • WHITE GLOVE' STORE Center Tire Inc. of Parmington, a Metro 25 Car Part of Center at 2534 Farmingtom, at 2534 Farmingtom, at 2534 Farmingtom, at 2534 Farmingtom, at 2534 errore dealers. • Because we meet the standards, evideomes who walk into our store are assured of clean facilities and prompt, courteous service," said Bruce Havermill, Center Tire wmer. "The White Glove symbol signifies that we have met the tough criteria of the program. We are proud to dis-play the logo."

• NEW IN TOWN Pauline's Hair Salon, at 24101 Orchard Lake Road in Farmington, offers complete family hairstyling. Owner Pauline Gazouleas of Tay-lor said her staff also can create hairstyles for men and women with particularly discriminating tastes. She has done hairstyling for 22 years. The telephone number is 474-7810.

Owners Russ and Anne Speling of West Bloomfield have opened Clin-namon Sam's Bakery at 33574 Grand River in Farmington Hills. A grand opening is set for June 27. The mean includes gournet clin-namon rolls, clinamon bread and a variety of muffins prepared and baked in public view. Fresh-baked literns may be caten on site or taken out. Products are all natural with no preservatives and low cholesterol. The telephone number is 478-6464.

production and interviews with French journalists. EXPANDS FACILITY Tamara Friedman, founder of Tamara Institute De Beaute at 32460 Northwestern Highway in Farming-ton Hills, has acquired an adjoining parceli to develop a shopping area featuring a cluster of shops. She estimates that the total space of hor new project will be 2000 square foct. Here facility, Tamara In-soft of square foct. Hintsse Exercise Co. also will usepand. Negoliations are under way with a health food store, a weight reduction center, a baby sitting service and a boutique. Ground will be broken in July, Eriedma nespects occupancy by De-cember. • NEW MALL SHOPS V.I.P. Floor Covering, Ltd., at 24365 Halsted in Farmington Hills, offers competitive pricing on rugs and fine carpets. Owners Ron Mays and Frank Krohn encourage people to visit the showroom, have a cup of coffee and browse.

rrieman expects occupancy by De-cember. • NEW MALL SHOPS Three new shops have opened at Tally Hall/Hunters Square, Farm-ington Hills. The Pudgery, in business for six vers, has 24 stores operating na-tionally, including one in Trapper's Alley, Detroit. It combines entertainment with candymaking. Workers double as part-time song and dance entertain-ers while connocting seven sweet fla-vors, including chocolate peanut butter.

browse. The grand opening will be July 10. The telephone number is 478-6606.

• MOVING UP Kenneth Dosenbach of Farming-ton Hills was appointed plant mana-ger for General Motors Hydra-matic Division's Strasbourg, France, facili-tivision's Strasbourg, France, facility. He began his career with General Motors in 1965 as a GMI student sponsored by Detroit Gear and Axle Division in Detroit.

His most-recent assignment was manufacturing manager for GM's Willow Run plant.

Rockey Road and chocolate peanut butter. Crowds gather around the open steps to watch the theaties as well as the mixing, slabbing and cooling processes of todgemaking on 1,200-Cindy Riley, also known as the "Fudge Wrench," said, "The Fudge Wrench," said, "The Fudge Queen' and "Sparkle Crow" espaially for the Tally Hall open-ing," opening in the newly renovat-ed mail are Beach Bound, a comput-entitied, custom babhing stit store; and laby and Me. a shop selling in fant through size é clothing plus ma-ter. A fourth new store, Caddy Shack, opened In March. It specializes in discount golf apparel and equip-ment

None calls in Periods EARNS GRANT
Anne Benington of Farmington Hills and chairman of the foreign language department at Marian High School, Birmingbam, has received a grant from the Prench government.
She is one of 25 U.S. teachers who will study this summer at the Centre International d'Eudes Pedagogiques ment. • PLAY LOTTO Players of the Michigan Lottery Daily and Lotto games have two ad-ditional retail locations in the Farm-ington area: Orchard Lot, 24065 Orchard Lake, and Last Stop Party Store, 29154 Grand River. at Sevres, a suburb of Paris. The course of study will include.
I Sevre, a suburb of Paris.

BASED ON TRADITION

These woven wool dhurries. designed with soft floral motifs, provide an interesting decorating base for both formal and casual room settings. Our interior professionals will assist you in choosing the perfect design, shade and size. 4x6', $95. 6x9', $195.

Jacobson's

H

Shop until 9 p.m. on Thursday and Friday

Until 6 p.m. on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Saturday

